GOMPERS SURE HE WILL CLEAR MEN

Labor Leader Declares He Has Evidence That Disproves Charges Against McNamara Brothers

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 1.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, said today that he had completed his work here in connection with the arrest of J. J. McNamara, who is in jail in Los Angeles and that he would proceed to Chicago. "We have received evidence," said Gompers, "which clearly disproves the charges against the men and shows that they are entirely innocent. At the conference today a permanent organization was perfected to take charge of all the details connected with the men now under arrest. This organization will have charge of the defense and will prosecute the charges of kidnaping which have arisen here in connection with the taking of McNamara out of this State."

LOS ANGELES, May 1.—Replying to reports that the defense in the McNamara case would apply for a change of venue, immediately upon arraignment of the prisoners, District Attorney John D. Frederick said today that he would not oppose such a motion, if the attorneys for the accused men could show sufficient grounds for the request. However, he stated he was confident that a fair and impartial trial could be obtained in Los Angeles.

BIG BLAZE CAUSES RUIN

Old Dewey Theater and Dietz Opera House Are Food for Flames

Polytechnic Business College Is Gutted; $100,000 Damage Is Done

Fire which resulted in a property loss of $100,000 broke out in the old Dewey Theater building in Twelfth street, between Webster and Harrison streets, about 1:30 o'clock this morning, completely destroying that structure as well as Dietz Opera House at Webster and Twelfth streets and seriously damaging the four-story brick building occupied by the Polytechnic Business College, together with several stores on the ground floor.

Both of the first two mentioned buildings were of wood and are complete losses. They were among the list of Oakland's rapidly disappearing landmarks and have both been the scenes of famous spectacles in days gone by. The property totally and partially destroyed belongs to the C. H. King estate and was under the care of the J. H. King Realty Company at 308 Twelfth street.

E. R. King, a member of the firm, said today that the loss would approach $100,000, although the buildings themselves, with the exception of the Polytechnic building, were not of such great value.

Located in the various buildings were a number of stores and business places which contributed their share to the general loss. They are: Polytechnic College, $2500 loss, fully insured. Damage to building, $8000, fully insured. Dodge Sweeney Company, 325 Twelfth street, loss $16,000, fully insured. Black's Package store, Twelfth and Harrison streets, $6000 loss, fully insured. Charles Clark, lessee of skating rink in Dewey building, $1500; total loss, insured for $500. H. Franz, saloon, corner Webster street, loss $1500, no insurance. L. W. Muecock, plumbing, 1112 Webster, loss $500, insured. J. H. Herring, cigar stand, corner Webster street, loss $200. Other places damaged were the Tallman-Stephenson Company, 310 Twelfth street; A. H. Knock, plumbing, 310 Twelfth street, and the Socialist headquarters.

SOCIALIST HEADQUARTERS. The Dietz building was the headquarters of the Socialist party, and it was there that they had stored a large quantity of campaign literature, almost all of which will be a complete loss. H. C. Truck, blind editor of the Socialist World, an organ of the party, and who is now a candidate for the office of school director No. 5, in opposition to Miss Annie Brown, was sleeping in the top story of the building where he and his wife had housekeeping rooms. Some time after the fire had been discovered and after it had gained a headway sufficient to spread from its place of origin into the adjoining structure, a number of roomers on the top story of the old opera house on the east side were awakened by the smoke and heat. Among them was A. S. Fuller. He discovered that the window frame of his room was afire and the place filled with smoke. He hurriedly gathered his clothes together and after opening the door he escaped.

DEATH'S BUGLE SOUNDS TAPS FOR A NATIONAL GUARDSMAN

ALL ALAMEDA BOWED IN GRIEF

Public and Private Citizens Alike Mourn "Billy" Simpson's Tragic End

Funeral Will Be Held Wednesday and Will Be Military in Character

ALAMEDA, May 1.—Seventeen hours after the body of Milton William Simpson, city attorney of this city and major of the First battalion, Fifth regiment, N. G. C., had been swallowed up by the waters of the channel about three hundred feet south of the Encinal Yacht Club, at the foot of Grand street, the bay gave up its victim, the body being washed ashore at 8:10 o'clock this morning; at the foot of Chestnut street, near the spot where the drowning occurred.

RUNNING BEFORE THE WIND.

Major Simpson, with Judge Robert J. Tappan, left the Aeolian Yacht Club, at the foot of Peach street, in the sloop Carlie L., owned by the latter, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, towing the Speedwell. After a short cruise around the bay, the Carlie L. turned home and was running before the wind when the accident occurred.

TAPPAN GRIEF-STRIKEN.

Sobbing with uncontrolled grief, Judge Tappan tried to account for the accident today. "I had just taken the tiller from 'Billy' when I heard a cry and saw him in the water. He was swimming and called out to let the tender loose. I quickly cut the rope and tried to bring the sloop about, but the wind was stiff and blew the boat away from him. I was handicapped. Simpson went down before my eyes. I was alone on the boat."

WAS GOOD SWIMMER.

Simpson was an athlete and a strong swimmer, as on several occasions swam from the yacht club to Bay Farm Island. That he would have been able to keep afloat and save his life yesterday, if he had not been partially stunned, is the belief of Judge Tappan and his other friends.

NATIVE OF STATE.

Simpson was born in California and was 35 years of age. Eight years ago he represented this city in the Assembly and two years later filled out Senator Joseph R. Knowland's term in the Senate. He was then elected city attorney of Alameda, which position he has held continuously for five years. Mayor W. H. Nor, who appointed Simpson, is grief-stricken over the accident. "He was a man of high honor," he said today, "and I loved and respected him. I cared for him like a son. We will have difficulty in getting an official to serve the city as he has done."

HAD KIT PACKED.

Yesterday morning, just before going aboard the Carlie L., Simpson had received orders to report for instruction with other National Guard officers, at the maneuver camp in San Diego, and had his kit packed ready to take the train south this morning. He was captain of Company G, Eighth California Volunteers, during the Spanish-American war and was stationed with his regiment at Vancouver barracks. After the war he was commissioned a major in the Fifth regiment, N. G. C., and was on the National Guard. Examining Board, and many times commanded the regiment at maneuver camps.

about four years ago, when he was accused of felony by Miss Isabelle Davis. He stopped the prosecution by marrying her. Mrs. Simpson, with whom the city attorney never lived after the marriage, resides in this city. She has a three-year-old son. In company with her mother, Mrs. Simpson gained entrance into the city attorney's office shortly after she instituted the felony charge against him and attempted to shoot him, firing one shot which missed him. She was disarmed by A. P. Smiley, who was in the office at the time.

ALL ALAMEDA MOURNS.

The city is wrapped in gloom today over the death of the popular official. Men are gathered in groups on the street, talking of the accident. The flags on both public and private buildings have been placed at half mast.

FUNERAL DATE SET.

The funeral of City Attorney Simpson will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Masonic hall under the auspices of Oak Grove Lodge of Masons, Five National Guard companies and a band of the First Battalion, Fifth Regiment, of which Simpson was major, will be in attendance. The services will be conducted by Rev. Willis A. Martin of the Alameda First Methodist Church, and will be followed by cremation.

WHEN BODY WAS FOUND.

The body of Simpson was found by Joe May, a fisherman, at the center of the channel a mile from shore on a line between Lafayette and Chestnut streets, this morning. May, with other searchers, was dragging the channel bottom with grappling hooks. The water was about 18 or 20 inches deep.

Among the searchers who helped bring the body ashore were: A. T. Smiley, Chester Plotz, Seymour Arada, Charles and Bert Powell and Judge Tappan. The City Council met in special session this morning just after the finding of the body and adopted the following resolution in respect to the memory of the deceased:

Resolved, further, as a mark of respect to the memory of Milton William Simpson, that the flags on all public buildings be placed at half mast until after the funeral of deceased, that the entrance to the city hall be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and also spread upon the minutes of this body as a further token of respect, and that this council do now adjourn.

The City Council will meet in regular session tomorrow night and will adjourn out of respect to the deceased until Friday night.

COURTS HONOR MEMORY.

All departments of the superior court will stand adjourned during the funeral of the late Major M. W. Simpson, city attorney of Alameda, who was drowned yesterday. Formal announcement of the lawyer's tragic death was made to the judiciary sitting in banc this morning by department three by Attorney Howard K. James of the Encinal City. Judge John Ellisworth, dean of the bench, presided at the meeting, and on the bench with him were Judges Frank B. Ogden, T. W. Harris, William H. Waste and Everett J. Brown. A number of attorneys attended the memorial exercises, which were brief.

Judge Waste made a short eulogistic reference to the deceased attorney, following his career as a student at the University of California and subsequently as a lawyer. He was followed by Judge Ellisworth, both jurists speaking highly of Simpson's honesty and integrity in his profession and as a man.

Government Given Right To Set Aside State Land

WASHINGTON, May 1.—By holding that the federal government, without consent of the State affected may set aside vast areas of public lands as forest reserves, and that such reserves are not subject to the State fencing laws, the Supreme Court of the United States settled two important western issues. Justice Lamar announced the opinion of the court as to the constitutionality of the forest reserves. He said that the United States had the absolute right to do what it pleased with its own property, the constitution had given it such power. This control, the justice said, was not a right incident to sovereignty as claimed by the opponents of the reservation but was the exercise of a right which every citizen possessed.

FRIENDS OF MOTT TO EAT AND BOOST
MAKES CALL FOR BOND ELECTION

Saddle Rock Will Be Scene of Gathering Tomorrow at Noon.

Tomorrow, at noon, in the Saddle Rock cafe, there will be a rousing luncheon given by the friends of Mayor Mott in all lines of activity, in this city and vicinity. There will be merchants, manufacturers, professional men, material dealers, mechanics, artisans and, in fact, all classes of persons who are devoted to a government which will continue the system under which Oakland has prospered during the last six years.

This advancement has attracted attention in all places and has been the subject of thousands of editorials in papers in all the states of the western shore of the United States as also in the eastern part of the country. Pat Kisich, the host for the occasion, promises that his spread will be unexcelled. There will be a number of short, snappy and inspiring speeches and the gathering will be brought to a close in time to enable every guest to return to his place of business without the expenditure of more than the time he allots himself for his daily noontide meal. The gathering will be presided over by Prof. E. G. Gibson.

MAKES CALL FOR BOND ELECTION

Voters to Pass on $500,000 Issue for New Hospital.

Burpee then explained the condition of the bonds. The issue is to be for $500,000, the bonds to be serial in character and to be payable in twenty years, the amount, $25,000 is payable each year, the interest for the first year $22,350 making for the total principal and interest, to be paid the first of $47,350 the second year, and so on, interest at four and one-half per cent. Each of the securities is to be semi-annually. If there is any surplus left after the purchase of the site the construction and furnishing of hospital, the same will be applied to payment of the principal and interest on the bond issue. All the bonds are to be at the office of the county treasurer in this city.

APPEAL TO FINANCIERS

The bonds will appeal favorably to financiers, both at home and abroad, cause of the large assessed valuation of Alameda county, as also because of the fact that Alameda county has more of bonded indebtedness something which can not be said of San Francisco, Los Angeles counties which, as is known, are plastered with it. Owing to the liberal showing of the equalized value of the county last year, the increase of the tax-rate for the first year on each $100 of taxable property, will be more than one-third of one cent, until it will be less than one-third cent. It is expected, that the assessment this year greater than was the assessment year.

For the purpose of saving much, as possible, the superintendent consolidated a number of the tracts in the municipalities and, for reason, there will be only voting places at which the vote be voted for on the day of election will be no change in the number of voting precincts in the various parts of the county.

THURSDAY'S TURNIP DAY! BE THERE WITH BEDINI!

PARING STAR TO RISK HIS LIFE

Will Catch Vegetable Dropped From High, on Fork Held in His Mouth

Thirteenth and Broadway the Place; 20,000 People Will Be on Hand.

Make no engagements for Turnip Day! Figure in advance on being a guest of THE TRIBUNE on Turnip Day.

What is Turnip Day? It is the day when Jean Bedini, one of the Orpheum vaudeville stars, will attempt, under the auspices of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, a feat which is expected to electrify the populace.

When is Turnip Day? Next Thursday is Turnip Day. On that day Jean Bedini will hold a fork in his mouth and on the end of the fork will stop a turnip, which is to be dropped from the top of the Union Savings Bank building at Thirteenth and Broadway.

He will take his life in his hands as he attempts this feat. Mr. Bedini knows what he is doing and is confident he will succeed.

There will be a great scientific demonstration. You are invited by THE TRIBUNE to be among those present on Thursday at 5 p. m. at Thirteenth and Broadway.

Twenty thousand people will witness it. Remember, next Thursday at 5 p. m. the day—Turnip Day is the day. Five p. m. is the place is at Thirteenth and Broadway.

is the time and place when Jean Bedini, the famous vaudeville artist, will be in the shadow of the Union Savings Bank building, and in the presence of 20,000 people will catch a turnip which he holds in his mouth.

turnip will be dropped from the bank building. Bedini may lose his life in the attempt to do business with the turnip. If he fails to catch it, he will be deprived of part of the skin. It all depends upon where the turnip hits him.

BIG PRIZE OFFERED. Turnip will be handled by a committee of which Colonel Edward A. O'Brien will be chairman, and Colonel O'Brien will himself handle the turnip which will be dropped from his hands at the exact corner of the building, from there to fall with lightning speed and tremendous power on Jean Bedini's face or neck.

THE TRIBUNE has arranged with Bedini, who is one of the most famous vaudeville artists in the land, to undertake this feat next Thursday.

THE TRIBUNE, in order to stimulate to do his utmost, has offered a prize of $250 in gold to be given to Jean Bedini if he catches the first turnip which is dropped from the top of the building.

One-Day Special for TOMORROW ONLY Every 50 cent Neck Tie in the house 40 cents top of the Union Savings Bank building next Thursday at noon. If Bedini fails to catch the first turnip, he will be given $50 for the glory that can come to a man who attempts the seemingly impossible.

ALL IS EXCITEMENT. There is already a wave of excitement in connection with Turnip Day, spreading from Berkeley to Alameda and talking in all of Oakland. The populace to a man is united in declaring that no such spectacular feat was ever done in any town as this turnip catching trick which Jean Bedini, under the auspices of THE TRIBUNE, will undertake.

Why, the indications are that on Thursday in the vicinity of Thirteenth and Broadway there will be a crowd which will break every record for assemblages in the history of this county. At least 20,000 people will be there and that will be some crowd.

They will all be guests of THE TRIBUNE, and to every citizen of Oakland, man, woman and child—THE TRIBUNE now extends an invitation to be among those present at Thirteenth and Broadway on Thursday, next Thursday. It should be understood that the attempt to catch the turnip will be made at that time, to be held in his mouth, is so dangerous that Bedini, although singularly expert in such lines, was persuaded with great difficulty to make the attempt next Thursday.

He has accomplished this in other cities, at other times, but this time, but each time he dreads the hand which only the persistent requests of THE TRIBUNE made him consent to give Oakland a taste of his metal, and the privilege of seeing him demonstrate how a man can overcome tremendous odds against him.

That is why he will appear under THE TRIBUNE's auspices, on Turnip Day, next Thursday. The trick he is to do sounds simple, but remember what it involves. To catch a turnip in the hand as it descends from the roof of a skyscraper is a tremendous feat. Anybody who enters the building to see the turnip appear. Then think of what changes there are involved in catching a turnip which is coming at cannon-ball speed and headed directly for your face instead of your hands.

TAKES NERVE. Imagine the nerve and the cool eye required to stand with head thrown back looking upward to the roof of a skyscraper and watching for the tiny speck to descend—the speck which when it reaches the ground will be something very much more than a speck—a speck in the form of a heavy turnip, which, should it strike any features of one's anatomy, would cause very much more than a mere blister.

Jean Bedini is to stand with his head thrown back and look up at the top of the Union Savings Bank building, next Thursday, and there coolly await the turnip which Colonel O'Brien will turn loose. Jean Bedini knows better than anyone else the danger that is involved. He knows that if the turnip should strike him in either eye, it is goodbye to that eye.

He knows that should the turnip land on his nose instead of on the face, it will be all off with the nose, literally speaking. Should the turnip catch him in the cheek, Bedini will be one of the sickest men on Broadway. The drug stores in the neighborhood would have instant demand made upon them for large quantities of courtplaster and other healing devices.

IMAGINE THE SHOCK. Now, should the turnip, weighing about a ton when it reaches the ground, and coming at cannon-ball speed, really land on the fork which Bedini will hold in his mouth, imagine the shock it will give to Bedini's whole body.

Imagine the shock to Bedini's teeth when that big turnip hits the fork! The shock will be vastly greater than though the strongest man in Oakland had thrown the turnip at him at a distance of several hundred feet.

Should Bedini lose control of the fork for a thousandth part of a second while waiting for the turnip to drop, it would be "curtains" for the gentleman, for the fork would be driven into his throat so far that when the post-mortem was held on Mr. Bedini expert surgeons would be required to disentangle him from the turnip.

When the hundred thousand people who read THE TRIBUNE take in all the facts relating to this turnip exhibition, they will see that the man is taking his life in his hands, to demonstrate

LATHROP SWEEP BY GREAT BLAZE

Business Section of San Joaquin Valley Town Is Wiped Out.

STOCKTON, May 1.—The greater portion of the business section of Lathrop, a town on the Southern Pacific ten miles south of this city, was destroyed by fire late yesterday. The fire started in a late store in the town of Mrs. G. Miniaci, chimney in the street, and the strong wind blowing soon carried the blazing things broadcast.

The town is without fire apparatus outside of the railroad engine, and they did not have sufficient hose to reach the flames, which spread rapidly. Calls were sent to Stockton for Tracy, and engines and hose were rushed to the scene. By the time they reached Lathrop an entire block was consumed.

The Lathrop Hotel, owned by Luigi Gatto; Joe Gerati's general merchandise store, C. D. Snow's butcher shop, David Ferner's restaurant, five residences on Sixth street and two or three small shops were destroyed.

The burning shingles were carried across the railroad yards and many boxes were set on fire. This kept the fire from spreading to the west. The fire burned from 1:45 until 7 o'clock last night, when the volunteer fire fighters succeeded in getting it under control to such an extent that it is not believed there will be any danger to other property. The loss is estimated at about $12,000, with small insurance.

MASONIC LODGES SIT AT BANQUET

Initial Annual Affair of Contra Costa Order Held at Pinole.

PINOLE, May 1.—The initial annual banquet of the Masonic lodges of Contra Costa county was held in the Masonic Temple yesterday afternoon. All eight lodges of the county were represented, and there were present 175 men, including visitors from other parts of the State.

W. E. McKenzie, worshipful master of Pinole Lodge No. 353, and was master of ceremonies. The dinner was served by the ladies of the local lodge of the Order of the Eastern Star.

The toasts given during the banquet were as follows: "Our Host, Pinole Lodge No. 353," W. E. McKenzie; "Masonry as a Moral Force," E. W. Stoddard of Martinez; "The Grand Lodge of California," Martinez Lodge No. 41; "B. L. Moore of Martinez," "The P. and Q's of Masonry," Thomas J. Baker of San Francisco; "Alamo Lodge No. 122," Harry F. NOTED AVIATORS WILL FLY HERE

Masson and Walker Promise to Break Records Next Sunday

An aviation meet is to be held on Oakland next Sunday at Fourth Avenue. Lights, at the head of the Fourth Avenue car line in East Oakland. Dider Masson, a famous French aviator, two Blériot monoplanes, and Clarence Walker, the young San Mateo millionaire, will be among the attractions.

Among the features of the day will be an aerial race between the two aviators over Piedmont and Oakland. The event will be a "quick start" at an altitude of at least 3000 feet during the course of the meet.

The first event of the day will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning. The two machines have never yet been used by Masson and have been brought over from Paris by a friend. Masson is now on his way to Oakland from Mexico City, where he has been making exhibition flights. He and Walker have contracted to make an exhibition tour through Australia and are to leave San Francisco for Honolulu Wednesday, May 10.

Walker has been practicing with his Curtiss biplane at his home near San Mateo for the last six months. Should the weather prove unfavorable Sunday, the flights will be made Monday or Tuesday.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

WASHINGTON, May 1.—A program arranged by the religious educational associations occupied the National Congress of Mothers and Parent Teachers' Association today.

"The relation of the church to child welfare," was the general topic, embodying discussion of the church as a social organization," by Rev. Clayton H. Baker, of Baltimore. "What can be done for instruction of parents in child care," by Walter M. Wood of Philadelphia, and "The church and the welfare of the immigrant child," Mrs. Lemuel C. Barnes of New York.

NATIVE SONS MILITARY BALL IS A SUCCESS

HAYWARD, May 1.—The second anniversary military ball was given by the members of company H, fifth regiment, national guard of California, in the Native Sons' Hall, Saturday evening. The affair was a great success both socially and financially. A large number of dancers were present to join in the evening's festivities.

SAYS FIRE VICTIMS DO NOT SUFFER

Painless Asphyxiation Sniffs Out Lives Before Flames Reach Persons

NEW YORK, May 1.—The question is often debated as to whether persons who lose their lives in a fire developing with great rapidity undergo extreme physical suffering. An authoritative opinion is expressed by the New York Medical Journal, which says:

"Unnecessary anguish of mind has probably been felt by relatives of the unfortunate workers who were killed in the recent fire in Washington place by reflection on the supposedly agonizing pain caused by such a death. Where a great bulk of highly inflammable substance is quickly consumed in a closed space, the result is the production of large quantities of carbon monoxide.

"The gas, it is well known, combines with the hemoglobins of the blood to form a compound that refuses to combine with oxygen. The result is speedy and probably painless asphyxiation before the flames have had a chance to attack the bodies of the victims."

"INDIANS" DRIVE HIM MAD. LOS ANGELES, May 1.—The sight of a band of "hostile Indians in full war paint and feathers, and a troop of cowboys, with regulation 'Wild West' guns and shaps, tumbling pell-mell aboard the street car on which he was riding in the outskirts of Los Angeles, proved too great a strain for the mind of Frank T. Budraits, recently from the East, and he became violently insane. The "Indians" and "cowboys" were a troupe of moving-picture actors, hastening back to their headquarters after a hard day's work before the camera.

TROUT SCARCITY IN ALAMEDA CREEK

Believed, However, That Fish Will Return Later in the Season.

LIVERMORE, May 1.—Fishermen have been whiping the mountain streams in vain this year. A few of the tinney beauties have been landed or even seen in Alameda creek, which for the past years have been the local mecca for the lover of fish. Steelhead by the dozen were landed day after day by sportsmen, but now things have changed and the only bite obtained through long hours of constant watching is that of the mosquito.

Charles A. Vogelsang, for many years chief deputy of the fish commission, states that the disappearance of the trout is due to the fact that they have begun to make the larger bodies of water for the smaller mountain streams, and as the water recedes in these they will become as plentiful as ever in the larger bodies of water.

J. Jacobs, of Niles, holds the record for the largest fish to be caught in these waters for some time. Last Sunday, accompanied by a party of friends, he made his way to the headwaters of Trout creek, and after an hour's work he landed a fish weighing 10 pounds and measured 34 inches.

SECTION OF TESLA ROADWAY CAVES IN

LIVERMORE, May 1.—Some time between Friday night and Saturday morning the Tesla road at a point directly opposite the old mill, near the crossing of the Western Pacific Railroad, caved in. This road showed signs of a cave for several days, and Thursday afternoon J. D. Ryan was forced to unhitch his horse from his buggy and haul it over the bad place by hand. An old clay tunnel, runs in the direction of the cave and is near this point, and it is believed that this is the cause of the break.

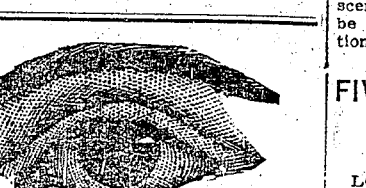

NILES PUBLIC SCHOOL SOON TO BE REOPENED

NILES, May 1.—Formal announcement has been made by Dr. McKown, in charge of the fumigating of the Niles grammar school, that all the pupils will be required to report for regular session on May 8. Several weeks ago the pupils were forced to rapidly vacate the building on account of scarlet fever. School was then held under a large oak tree in a vacant lot, but J. Pluv. got on the job and school was discontinued.

Freckles

Here's a Simple Remedy That Banishes Early Freckles Almost in a Night.

If those who freckle every spring or summer would get a two-ounce package of Kintho now they would be almost sure to have no further trouble with the hot summer sunshine. Kintho is sure—the quicker you use Kintho the sooner you'll be rid of your freckles. Get it wherever toilet goods are sold. If it fails, get your money back.

The additions to the main building will cost in the neighborhood of $7000. According to the contract, the work will be commenced immediately. There will be changes in the new building and all of the structures will receive painting.

'WIZARD OF NILE' AT IDORA PARK

Popular Comic Opera Company to Be Seen in Musical Gem.

At the Idora Park theatre this evening the "Wizard of the Nile" will begin a week's run. Probably the most popular of the old comic operas, "The Wizard," has never failed to delight both young and old. In the skillful hands of the Idora company one may look for a most excellent presentation.

A notable feature of tonight's performance will be the first appearance in Oakland of Agnes Cain-Brown, the new prima donna of the Idora forces. Miss Brown is a native of the opera, and musical comedy world, and her debut with the Idora stock company tonight will be an event of interest. For a number of years she has been at the head of her profession, first with the original Bostonian troupe, and later as a member of the Savage forces. Miss Brown is said to possess an exceptional soprano voice. In the role of Cleopatra she will have ample opportunity to display her vocal talents.

As Kibosh, James McElhern, the popular comedian, will have a role, which suits his spontaneous humor. McElhern has scored a big hit with Idora audiences during the past two weeks and can be depended upon to be execrably funny in the role of Kibosh. The scenic effects and costumes are said to be magnificent for this week's production.

FIVE HURT WHEN CAR DASHES DOWN HILL

LOS ANGELES, May 1.—Thundering down the long Alvarado-street hill like a sled on an icy slope, car No. 117 of the First and Sixth street loop left the track at the curve, leaped twenty feet through the air and crashed through a flight of solid concrete steps as though they were as much paper. The motorman, occupants of the car were slightly injured in the accident, which occurred at about 1:30 o'clock yesterday. They were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hunter, a bride and groom; Mildred Smith, a schoolgirl; Motorman W. E. Witherhead and Conductor A. K. Walker. The latter fainted after his passengers had been removed.

Little Action Taken by Prosecution or Defense in Dynamiting Case

MRS. McMANIGAL MAY BE CALLED

Rumor Has If Wife of Prisoner Will Come West to Testify.

cago detective agency, and Paul Flammer, head of the Los Angeles detective bureau, gave rise to further rumors of additional arrests in the case. But Fredericks declined to make any statement along this line, although he said, in answer to questions that he was considering the advisability of placing new evidence in the dynamiting case and calling new witnesses before the grand jury, which, though still impeached, had not been in session since the true bills were returned against McManigal and the McNamara two weeks ago at the telegraphed request of Detective Burns.

REFUSES TO ANSWER.

"Does that mean that there will be more indictments against the prisoners or that someone else will be indicted?" the district attorney was asked. "I will not say," was the reply. "Flammer and Mills spent nearly an hour in the district attorney's office and then, while newspaper reporters were waiting in an ante room, they went out a side door and together they sped away in an automobile. No one knew where they were going or the object of the sudden trip."

When he appeared at his office today Fredericks was confronted by a pile of mail concerning the dynamiting case, in addition to a telegram from Assistant District Attorney Ford, saying he would arrive in Los Angeles Wednesday night. Some of the letters received by the district attorney contained threats of death for all concerned in the prosecution of the McNamara.

SCHMIDT SIGNS THREAT.

One of these, signed with the name M. J. Schmidt, was from a man in New York, who claimed to be the "Cockey" Schmidt who was indicted, with Bryce and Caplan as a Times dynamiter. The letter was dated April 28 and its writer asserted that the McNamara were innocent.

"I am the man who set the bomb" it read in part, "but Burns is not smart enough to catch me."

"I sail for Europe tomorrow, but will return when this trouble is over and will then come to Los Angeles. I will then have the McNamara arrested and will have them executed. If you prosecute those poor labor men you will prosecute yourself."

Both Prosecution and Defense Are Biding Their Time

LOS ANGELES, May 1.—Although important legal developments are expected soon in the cases of John J. McNamara, secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, and his brother, James B. McNamara, who are charged with many murders by the use of dynamite, they are resting quietly so far as outward appearances are concerned. No further plans of either the prosecution or the defense were definitely announced today and both sides seemed waiting for attorneys before taking any further legal step. No time was fixed positively for the arraignment of the men nor was it known to which judge of the Superior Court their cases will be allotted.

AWAITS FORD.

District Attorney Fredericks is not expected to call for the arrest warrants before the arrival about the middle of the present week of his associate, W. Joseph Ford, from Indianapolis. So far as is known positively, Fredericks and Ford will conduct the prosecution to the trial of the McNamara. The defense has opened extensive headquarters in this city and is expected to take no important step before the arrival here of Clarence Darrow of Chicago, or some of his representatives.

Andrew J. Gallagher and B. B. Rosenthal, labor leaders of San Francisco, have come here to confer with union men of Los Angeles regarding the charges against the McNamara.

TIRE OF PRISON FARE.

The prisoners have tired of the fare in the county jail and have asked the district attorney to let them go outside a restaurant, but the request was denied because of the uncertainty as to what might be sent in with them. They are permitted to buy food outside, however, and have at least one meal a day. The McNamara continue in good spirits.

James B. McNamara continues to astonish the attaché of the jail by the large amount of chewing tobacco he uses. He is said to be more addicted to that habit than any other man confined there for months.

WIFE TO BE WITNESS.

Ortie E. McManigal, who is said to have confessed and to have implicated the McNamara in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building, is said to have been brought here as a witness for the prosecution.

A woman who said that two men had registered at her apartment house last October under the name of McNamara visited the county jail to try to identify the men as those who had lived at her establishment, but was unable to do so.

Pastors of the city have taken up the subject of the dynamites in their sermons. Rev. Charles Edward Locke, pastor of the First Methodist church, last night preached a sermon on "The Dynamiter's Alleged Confession, or Why Murder Will Out." He declared that if the men now in the county jail are guilty they should be speedily punished with the full penalty of the law.

CONSIDER RECIPROCITY. The Senate Finance committee gave formal consideration to the Canadian reciprocity bill at the full meeting of the committee postponed until tomorrow.

Two of the lawyers who have been retained for the defense of the men accused of dynamiting the Los Angeles Times building.

DISPLAY TRAIN ADVERTISES WEST

Association Plans Exhibition Cars to Tour Great Cities of the East

A convention of the Western Development Association, of which Wilbur Walker of the Oakland Merchants' Exchange is treasurer, will be held in Portland on May 17, at which plans for the institution of an exhibit train, representing the ten States in the organization, will be adopted. The scheme, which has been endorsed by the Governors of the Western States, is to have a ten-car train, each car being devoted to exhibits demonstrating the resources, industrial and agricultural, of one State. The exhibit train will tour the entire country, visiting all the great cities of the East, and will be equipped with a capable staff of lecturers, who will be provided with stereoscopic views.

The association was formed recently at Omaha and has held two meetings, the first at Omaha, the second at Salt Lake City. The work of the league is recognized as being one of the most important of its kind in the West, and is expected to accomplish much for its material development. On the executive committee are Robert N. Lynch, San Francisco; E. W. Pettibone, Great Falls, Mont.; R. E. Atkinson, Boise, Idaho; C. C. Chapman, Portland, Ore.; W. R. McLean, Lincoln, Neb.; W. W. Armstrong, Salt Lake City; Alfred Patek, Denver; Philip W. Blake, Wheatland, Wyo.; J. E. Barnes, Centralia, Wash. Governor J. H. Brady of Idaho is president. Wilbur Walker will attend the convention at Portland.

NOTED PAINTER IS SENT TO JAIL

W. A. Treffenberg Is Refused Probation and Is Sentenced to 60 Days.

W. A. Treffenberg, a well-known miniature artist who received his education at Cornell university and abroad, was sentenced to spend sixty days in the city prison by Judge Mortimer Smith this morning on a petty larceny charge. He was arrested last night on a charge of stealing a small safe from the home of a local business man, and was taken to the city jail.

Treffenberg, who is known to artists throughout the United States for his clever miniature work, came to Oakland about four months ago. He attempted to dispose of some of his paintings to local dealers, but was unable to obtain enough money to pay for his board and lodging at the Teddy house. None of his friends came to his aid, and he finally, when he owed for several months' lodging, he commenced to steal.

When arrested he confessed the thefts, and pleaded guilty in court, asking for probation. This was denied on the recommendation of the probation officer.

URGES LOCAL CHAMBER TO MAKE EXHIBIT

A. D. Denison, the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is in receipt of a communication from the American Land and Irrigation Exposition of New York City, urging the local organization to arrange for an exhibit from Alameda county for an exposition scheduled for November next. The exposition will be held in Madison Square Gardens and will be one of the largest ever undertaken by the New York society. The communication will be referred to the directors of the organization at the next meeting. The chamber is receiving many requests for information regarding opportunities for home-seekers in this vicinity from points all over the country in response to a letter sent out last week containing such information to all those desiring it.

SEARCH IS INSTITUTED FOR 6-YEAR-OLD GIRL

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—A warrant for the arrest of a six-year-old girl, daughter of John Lindsay, a local contractor, of 1255 Eddy street, has been issued by the district attorney. The girl was last seen Saturday by Lindsay at his home, and is believed to have been taken to the city by the girl's mother, Mrs. Lindsay. It was found that both Mrs. Lindsay and the little girl were missing, and a statewide search to locate them has been instituted.

OAKLAND BLOCK RAZED BY FIERCE NIGHT FIRE

Firemen Have Narrow Escape When the Walls Fall; $100,000 Damage Is Done

Fire escape window on the west side of the building, hurried about the house arousing the sleeping roomers, who numbered in all about thirty persons.

He went to the rooms of Editor Tuck and after piloting the family to safety returned, and saved a number of articles of clothing, as well as papers of value to the socialist party at this time.

SPECTATORS AT GATHER.

Within a short time after Patrolman Bannister turned in the first alarm the whole of the old Dewey theater, which for the last two years has been occupied as a skating rink, under the management of Charles Clark, was a mass of flames and a large-sized crowd had gathered in spite of the early hour. The fire was discovered by the official who had seen a flicker in an alley between the rink building and the Dodge-Sweeney wholesale grocery store. He thought that there were burglars at work and made his way into the dark passageway. As he reached the rear of the rink he was greeted with a roar of flame and smoke from within the rink and in the vicinity of the electric fuse and switch-box.

He hurried to turn in an alarm, but by the time he had done so the flames had gained such a headway that he returned and sent in another, while within a few moments a general alarm aroused the whole fire department.

SALT WATER SYSTEM USED.

Water was played upon the blaze from a number of hose lines and the salt water system brought into service with considerable effect. The attention of the firemen was confined to the old theater structure, but on account of its great size and the barn-like construction of its interior, little could be done, and before the flames were controlled the showcase in a local drug store, valued at $5, and pawned it for $2.

Treffenberg, who is known to artists throughout the United States for his clever miniature work, came to Oakland about four months ago. He attempted to dispose of some of his paintings to local dealers, but was unable to obtain enough money to pay for his board and lodging at the Teddy house. None of his friends came to his aid, and he finally, when he owed for several months' lodging, he commenced to steal.

PACKAGE STORE LOSER.

The Black's package store will be one of the heaviest losers as a quantity of goods stored in the basement was destroyed by water.

The same will affect the Dodge-Sweeney Company, whose loss will be almost complete, with the exception of canned goods. A large force of men were put to work in the business college before noon today, and Professor Gibson stated that the school would be open to the students on Wednesday morning as usual, for the reason that the only department which was damaged was that of the engineering laboratory, most of which had been removed to the new building. Water was the greatest source of damage to the four-story brick building, as it seeped from one floor to another.

FIREMEN IN DANGER.

Fire engine company No. 11, at Ninth and Alice streets, was the first to the scene and after the general alarm had been turned in companies 1, 2, 4, 5, 7, 9, 10 and 15 responded. The firemen had all they could handle under the circumstances, and at times they were in danger of their lives while working within the old theater building, which threatened to cave in at any moment. It finally did so with a terrific crash and a shower of embers. The central portion of the Dietz opera house building was entirely consumed, while the roof and top story above the auditorium fell through to the second floor, wrecking the building. Today the Socialists moved their headquarters to the Rice Institute building at Seventeenth street and San Pablo avenue.

WAS LANDMARK.

Last night's fire removes one of the oldest landmarks in the city of Oakland, the Lakeside Skating Rink. The injury to the Dietz Opera House does not seem to have reached the degree of completeness to prevent its repair. Both buildings have had their day and for long time held a wide place in the estimation of the people of this city. It was there, at different times, the people of this city enjoyed the opera, comedy and tragedy by the world's greatest stars. In connection with it there were several other buildings, all of which occupied a place on the campus, one of which stood, until recently, at the northeast corner of Harrison and Twelfth streets and was torn down for the purpose of advancing the work of development in that section. That was known as Liberty Hall, but which, for many years before its destruction, served, on the first floor, as a ball room and on the upper as a ball room and on the upper as a recently disbanded company of Veterans Reserves, a military organization organized by the late Captain Charles R. King.

The Dietz building served as a class room and dormitory and in many of the best known citizens of Oakland, in business as well as in professional life, received instruction which fitted them for the pursuits in which they are now engaged. One of the prominent instructors of the time was the late Fred M. Campbell who, for many years, survived the uses of the structures as an educational institution and later became superintendent of the schools of this city and State superintendent of education.

HOME OF BRAYTON.

On the southwest corner of the same block at the corner of Harrison and Twelfth streets, was the home of Frederick Brayton, the head of the institution which for more than a quarter of a century was known as the Sunnyside House. This structure was razed a few years ago to make way for progress.

When the Dietz building was converted to uses other than education, the purchaser made it a hall for entertainments, with a saloon below. It became known as Elite hall. Later it was transformed into the name of Dietz Opera House. One of the noted actors, who has but just arrived in San Francisco to open another engagement. When she learned the limited accommodations for the management, inside of a day, to increase the depth of the stage by ten feet.

The remainder of the loss resulting from fire and water is accounted for in the destruction of the buildings. They can be replaced by new structures, but the structures are taboos by a city ordinance limits by provision of a city ordinance. Some time ago it was the intention of the late C. H. King to raze both buildings and construct modern store and office buildings on their sites, but at the time the proposition was abandoned. It is believed that the estate will now carry out the plans as soon as the insurance has been adjusted and the debris cleared away.

The Lakeside skating rink, formerly a 5-cent dance hall and popular among the young people of Oakland for a couple of years following the San Francisco fire, was moved to the Twelfth street, where at one time it was the scene of a monster reception and demonstration in honor of General U. S. Grant, at that time stopping here on his way east. After its removal, the building was somewhat enlarged by the addition of an L facing Twelfth street. As the Dewey theater it was perhaps best known to the people of Oakland in recent years.

PARTIALLY INSURED.

The building was partially insured by the King estate to the extent of $2000. The Dietz Opera House structure was not insured and its loss as far as it goes will be complete.

About two weeks ago the skating rink building, had a narrow escape from destruction, at which time a bundle of rags, destined to be on fire in a narrow passageway on the east side next to the Polytechnic building. Some time ago the building was offered for sale at $10,000. The conflagration of the early morning hours was one of the most spectacular witnessed in Oakland in long time. The fire burned aggressively for more than an hour and in the course of that time succeeded in raising havoc with telephone wires on poles in front of the theater building. This morning a large force of men were engaged in repairing cables and splicing joints that had melted from the extreme heat. Nothing but the charred walls of the skating rink remain while the Dietz building is between fire and water, almost a complete wreck.

COMIC OPERA HEARD.

Later, the old agricultural pavilion which was erected in the southern part of the city, was moved to the site immediately across the Dietz opera house and was transformed into a theater. The opera house then became the resort for amateur actors as also the place for balls the streets, Chinese gunboats patrolling the West river fired into several parties of rebels, slaughtering 200 of them.

Retreating to the countryside, the revolutionists attacked and captured Sam-Shui thirty miles west of Canton, and murdered the prefect. The troops were put to flight and the rebels moved on to Wenchow and Who Chow, both of which towns they took after slight resistance. Luk's brigands, following in their wake, looted the shops of the three towns. The triumphant sweep of the revolutionists continued westward along the West river and reports from that district say that the movement is spreading and the rebels are murdering and pillaging in other places.

LOOT TOWNS.

While the movement to the west is being directed by Wu Sun, the brigand chief, Luk, has led personally a force to the north of Canton. He looted the market at Chung Lok, twenty miles north of Canton, then made a wide detour to the west and fell on Fatsan, a town fifteen miles southwest of the capital of the province. Here he first destroyed the palace of the assistant magistrate and then turned the town over to his followers to be looted.

Advices state that Shun Chang, on the West river, has fallen before the revolutionists, who murdered the prefect. The battle at Fatsan was hard fought, the imperial troops fighting at Lung Shi bridge. Thirty-seven soldiers were killed before the troops fell back.

CUT TELEGRAPH WIRES.

The revolutionaries are cutting the telegraph wires throughout the country, their operations cutting communications between Canton and points to the north and west is generally interrupted. Traffic on the Chinese section of the railway suspended.

A report that Shamen, the foreign concession at Canton, has been seized by the revolutionaries, the American gunboat Wilmington has the place under her guns.

The Viceroy of Canton, who took refuge on a gunboat after his palace was burned, Wednesday night, has ordered troops to pursue the rebels in the country. The authorities appear from the latest advices, to be in control at Canton. The gates of the city are closed and no one is allowed to enter. A vigorous round-up of suspects is being made. Seven gunboats are anchored off the city.

W. C. T. U. FAVORS SUFFRAGE CAUSE

Declares Ballot to Be Only Solution of White Slave Problem

Declaring that the only solution to the white slave problem would be the ballot, the members of the Western Christian Temperance Union, endorsed suffrage at the annual institute of the organization held last Friday afternoon in the Brooklyn Freshy Church of East Oakland. Mrs. Christine Crawford, secretary of the Western Christian Temperance Union, presided at the meeting. The speakers were Miss Julia A. Wilson, Mrs. S. M. Woodman, Mrs. E. L. Rich, Dr. Annie Wilson, Mrs. J. O. Seward, Mrs. E. M. Seward, Mrs. S. C. Borland, Mrs. M. Dille and Mrs. M. C. Lord.

"The White Slave Traffic" was the subject of the address delivered by Mrs. Crawford. She stated that the cure, she stated, would be effected with the conferring of the ballot upon women.

"According to statistics gathered by the United States census, 80,000 girls a year were sacrificed to this traffic and that the trouble was largely political," said Mrs. Rose.

The five-months-old son of Mrs. Christine Crawford, of Pleasanton, was consecrated to the temperance cause at the institute. Rev. Sarah Boudy officiated at the consecration ceremony.

BLAMES CAR MAN FOR HIS INJURIES

A. L. Gorman Declares He Was Pushed From Car; Leg Is Broken.

BERKELEY, May 1.—A. L. Gorman, a carpenter, of 1901 Kirkham street, West Berkeley, sustained a compound fracture of the right leg, falling from a San Pablo avenue car shortly after 5 o'clock last night. It was declared at Roosevelt hospital today that he was pushed from the car by the conductor, whose name and number are unknown. Gorman said that he was standing on the platform and, in falling, my leg was doubled up under me, causing the fracture. The accident happened on San Pablo avenue in front of the University of California. Gorman will be laid up for more than a month with his injuries.

OVERGROWN EGGS PUT ON DISPLAY

Chamber of Commerce Starts Exhibit That Should Be Notable One.

Under the supervision of W. D. Nichols, processor at the exhibit of the Alameda county commission, maintained at the Chamber of Commerce quarters on Twelfth street, an exhibit of what Oakland can do in phenomenal egg production has been started, a number of specimens being on exhibition. The fact that this exhibit is fast growing into a rival of the renowned Fetalluma ar an egg and chicken center is rapidly becoming known. It is the plan of the county commission to make the egg exhibit an extensive one. Some of the eggs shown weigh one-fourth of a pound and measure 7 1/2 inches in circumference and 3 1/2 inches in length.

Capture of Port by Rebels, Is Reported

FIRES SHOTS AT MEN WHO STOLE HIS PURSE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—In a desperate effort to capture three pickpockets who had stolen his purse, Louis F. Boski of 204 D street, Nepa, fired two shots at them at an early hour this morning. Boski was on a passenger car on a Union street car and was standing on the platform. Suddenly he heard his keys rattle and, putting his hand in his pocket, missed his purse and saw three men jump from the car.

He followed and they ran. Drawing a revolver, he tried to stop them but failed. A policeman, Hanrahan, searched the neighborhood, but failed to find the culprits.

HUBBY THREATENED HER, WIFE DECLARES

Katherine Miller charges extreme cruelty in her complaint for a divorce from Henry Miller, filed today in the Superior Court. After she had secured a position in an office on the ninth floor of the Western Metropolis Bank building in San Francisco, Mrs. Miller alleges, Miller called there one day and asked her employers to discharge her, which they refused to do. Then Miller demanded that his wife return home with him and when she refused he threatened, the complaint alleges, to throw her out of the office.

The wife also declares that on other occasions Miller beat her, knocked her down and threatened to take her life.

SURGERY DEEMED MORE POTENT THAN PRAYER

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Little Edward Chandler, aged five, of 574 Broadway street, had his finger partially cut off with a piece of glass this afternoon and the amputation was completed at the Central emergency hospital. The doctors had considerable difficulty in winning the parents to the operation, as they were necessary, instead of adopting their theory that prayer would heal the injured member.

OAKLAND MAN IS FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Robert Robertson of 1126 Twenty-third avenue, Oakland, was found unconscious in a drug store at Ellis and Powell streets by Special Officer Crum of the Pinkerton patrol at 5:30 this morning. At the Central emergency hospital Dr. Tiltman found that he was suffering from ptomaine poisoning.

BILLS SIGNED BY GOV. JOHNSON

Executive Affairs Signature. Various Measures Enacted by the Legislature.

SACRAMENTO May 1.—Governor Johnson late this afternoon gave out a list of almost 200 bills signed today. Following is a list of the most important bills:

Senate bill 217, relating to the support of the University of California.

Assembly bill 1152, relating to the term of the State printer, making his office appointive by the Governor and not elective as heretofore.

Assembly bill 883, absolving public officials from responsibilities for damage or injuries received by individuals on highways or public buildings.

A. B. 376, providing for the protection of workmen on buildings.

A. B. 975, providing for the distribution of serums and vaccines to be used in hog cholera.

A. B. 767, 768, 769, 771, making appropriations of more than $100,000 for improvements at State Agricultural Park.

B. 55, establishing a normal school at Fresno.

A. B. 64, to pay the claim of Geo. W. Bush, Judge of Shasta county.

Many of the bills signed were for appropriations to make improvements and to provide for new buildings for State institutions.

JAPANESE PASTOR HEARD IN CHURCH

Rev. Sennosuke Ogato Tells Hearers of Missionary Work in Nippon.

"Missionary Progress in Japan" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Rev. Sennosuke Ogato before the congregation of the First Methodist Episcopal church yesterday morning. The distinguished Japanese preacher, who the preceding elder of the Tokyo district of the Methodist Episcopal Church, gave the sermon in English at the De Pauw University, where he was ordained in 1885 by Bishop Walden of Indiana conference.

"As the result of fifty years' experience there are but 75,000 Christians in Japan," said Rev. Dr. Ogato. "Japan has not foreign ideas with regard to religion, but has not included Christianity."

Rev. Ogato specified as the need of Christianity in Japan the overthrow of the emperor, the overthrow of the amount of divorce and consanguinity, the empire, relief for which he was not to be found in either Buddhism, Shintoism or Shintoism. He said that the people, he stated, had the social evil which is legalized; degradation of business, morals, which says includes the using of false weight and measures and absolute failure to carry out contracts; the prevalence of forgery; and the prevalence of suicide, especially among the young, due to belief that they are to be born again in more favorable conditions.

COUNTY LOSES SUIT AGAINST N

Commissions Amounting $80,000 Will Not Be Paid by the State.

Alameda county this afternoon lost a suit in the Superior Court brought against the State of California. A. J. Kye, lost commissions amounting to $80,000, which the county claimed it was entitled to for the collection of all taxes. The suit was brought about two years ago under authorization by the Board of Supervisors and was only tried by Judge William H. W. He handed down his decision this afternoon.

The county claimed that under statute it was entitled to a commission of 5% on all state taxes and that the suit was brought to enter a decree for covering the four previous years' state tax collections. In his decision Judge Waste holds in substance that county can have any claim for commission against the state for the collection of state taxes, the law providing for the collection of such taxes to be along with that of county taxes. He understood that the county, which, together with the District Attorney is represented by Attorney Reed, Mack Reed, and Clarence Crowell, will appeal from Judge Waste's ruling.

SAILOR INJURED WHILE ESCAPING FROM FI

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—John Looney, a sailor, was seriously injured in a fire which broke out at 1 o'clock this morning in the saloon, beneath a lodging house conducted by Mrs. E. J. Keale at 401 Eale street. Special Officer Dille turned in the alarm and a man Miller, who was on duty, rushed down the rear stairs, sustaining a sprained back and possible internal injuries.

Just what caused the blaze in the saloon was not determined, but it is supposed to have been caused by a property belongs to the Friedman

LUMBER FIRM FAILS IN SUM OF $1

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The City Warehouse and Lumber Co., of this city filed a petition today in the United States district court to declare a voluntary bankruptcy. The liabilities of the company are placed at $105,000, with assets which may be it to pay 60 cents on the dollar.

MY DAUGHTER WAS CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Baltimore, Md.—"I send you here with the picture of my fifteen year old daughter Alice, who was restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was pale, with dark circles under her eyes, weak and irritable. Two different doctors treated her and called it Green Sickness, but she grew worse all the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking three bottles she has regained her health, thanks to your medicine. I can recommend it to all female troubles."—Mrs. L. A. CORNELL, 1103 Rutland Street, Baltimore, Md.

Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for their children have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

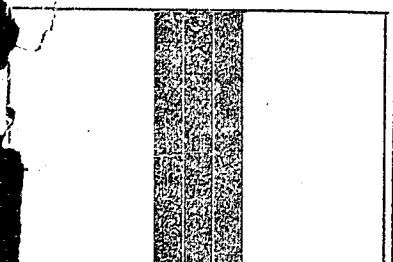

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.
Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should take immediate action and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by its use.

CONVICT ESCAPES FROM NEVADA'S MODEL PRISON

RENO, Nev., May 1.—William Deal, a Mendocino county, California, man, is the first penitentiary convict to abuse the privileges extended by Warden Ray Baker to the inmates under his new honor system of handling prisoners. A notable dragnet is out for the get-away. Deal's capture is expected within a few days. Deal, with nearly fifty other inmates of the state penitentiary, was employed on the prison farm, four miles from Carson. The men are not guarded, among them are several "lifers," they sleep and eat on the farm. Deal, who was not guarded, was reading a book when he was discovered. He wanted to finish an interesting book. This morning he was missing. An investigation disclosed the absence of a side of bacon, some potatoes, bread and other provisions, and it was believed that Deal took them.

WORTH $1,000,000; LIVES LIFE OF RECLUSE

Miss Jane Perkins Williams, Capitalist, Committed to Asylum for Insane.

STOCKS AND BONDS SECRETED IN HOUSE

Woman Left, Unopened, Letters Containing Checks for Dividends.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Representatives of the State Lunacy Commission will apply to the courts here this week for the appointment of representatives to care for the estate of Miss Jane Perkins Williams, an aged Brooklyn spinster whose wealth was revealed only through her commitment to an asylum. Miss Williams has been living the life of a recluse for many years in a one-story, dilapidated frame shack on an underused avenue in Brooklyn. Several days ago, neighbors complained that Miss Williams, who is 75 years old, needed attention. She was removed to the Long Island State Hospital for the Insane and yesterday special agents went to her home to find out something about her, as she had refused to talk about herself. What the agents found in the house saved them the surprise of their lives.

Buried beneath thousands of old newspapers and heaps of trash, they found stocks, bonds, mortgages and other papers representing nearly $500,000, together with evidence that the recluse has at least $500,000 in safety deposit vaults in New York, Brooklyn and Albany. Stocks and bonds worth thousands of dollars were tucked away in old trunks in an ancient mattress, in holes in the walls and under the floor. Bundles of letters which had never been opened contained checks for dividends which the old woman had never collected.

MANY FALSE WEIGHTS DISCOVERED IN BOSTON

BOSTON, May 1.—Thirty-eight per cent of the scales tested in Boston in the recent special investigation by inspectors from the Department of Commerce and Labor at Washington are incorrect, according to a report received by the State Department of Weights and Measures. Twenty-two per cent of liquor measures and 10 per cent of dry measures were also inaccurate. The mistakes were nearly always in favor of the dealers. Excuses that the city forces of scales is inadequate will not hold, says the report, as in proportion to its size, Boston is better equipped in this respect than any other city in the country.

STUDENTS WRITE 100 ESSAYS ON ARBITRATION

MOHONK LAKE, N. Y., May 1.—More than 100 essays have been received by the committee in charge of the contest for the Pugsley prize, offered annually by the Lake Mohonk conference on international arbitration for the best essay on "International Arbitration" by undergraduate students by any American college. Two West Point cadets, Edwin N. Hardy of Memphis, Tenn., and John F. Lucas of Kearneyville, W. Va., are among the essayists. A Chinese student at Oberlin College, H. J. Fei of Peking, China, and a Japanese, H. S. Kennowata, studying at the University of Wisconsin, are also contestants.

CHICAGO BUILDINGS TO FALL BEFORE WRECKERS

CHICAGO, May 1.—The work of razing six of the oldest buildings in the downtown district was begun today, to make room for as many modern skyscrapers. The expiration of these six leases on May 1 means the destruction of six old buildings of the type of construction favored in the days after the Chicago fire—each occupying a valuable site in one of the busiest commercial districts in the world. Among the buildings to be torn away is the old Continental Hotel, at Wabash and Madison streets, which was headquarters for theatrical people in the early seventies.

MAKES LAST TRIP.
NEW YORK, May 1.—The Metropolitan Opera Company has ended in Atlanta, Ga., probably the last tour the organization will ever make. It was thought that there might be some profit in the brief visit of the company to various cities, but when Caruso dropped out of the company there was no more chance of that, and the profits of the Metropolitan Opera Company for the season have been diminished by the result of the opera company's appearance in Montreal, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Atlanta.

ONE WEAK SPOT

Most Oakland People Have a Weak Part and Too Often It's the Back.

Everyone has a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. For backache and kidney ills. Tell us the kidneys need help. For backache is really kidney-ache. A kidney cure is what you need. Doan's Kidney Pills help sick kidneys. For backache and kidney ills. Oakland people recommend the remedy. Mrs. Julius Redo, 1323 Fortieth avenue, Fruitvale, Oakland, Cal., says: "During the summer of 1910 while living in Val-de-Jo, I gave a public statement telling of my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. I had tried various remedies in an endeavor to free myself of a persistent dull ache in the small of my back which bothered me mostly when I was on my feet. In addition to this, I had trouble from the kidney secretions and my condition in general gave evidence that my kidneys were at fault. Using Doan's Kidney Pills as directed, the pain in my back was completely removed and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. I can say that my cure has been permanent. I have advised the use of Doan's Kidney Pills on a number of occasions and they have always given entire satisfaction." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DRAMATIC UNIT WILL GIVE PLAY
Members of Oakland Club Will Appear in Scenes From "Blue Bird."

The dramatic section of the Oakland Club is preparing to give an interesting evening affair the latter part of this month when they will present a special adaptation of scenes from Maeterlinck's "Blue Bird." Madam Anais Molere, who is directing the rehearsals, has chosen the forest scene as the main feature, and is planning artistic and suitable costumes for the cast. Mrs. E. I. Bartholomew will have charge of the music, which promises to add much to the portrayal of the fascinating play. Mrs. Orville Caldwell, who took the leading part in the club's recent production of "A Lanchester in Mill Valley," will, with Mrs. A. L. Frick, and a few others, receive the guests for the evening.
Dancing will conclude the festivities of the delightfully planned affair.
Among those taking an active part in the dramatic section's work are: Mrs. E. L. Fayer, Mrs. J. H. Boyer, Miss Zoe Ackerman, Mrs. E. H. Sims, Mrs. O. E. Caldwell, Miss Gladys Harrison, Mrs. F. A. Bush, Mrs. Leon Hall, Mrs. J. W. Willie, Mrs. J. H. Bloome, Mrs. F. H. Greene, Miss Ida Biven, Miss Ivy Curtis, Mrs. C. L. Tibbels and several others.

RHEUMATISM FORMULA
William Whitla, M. B., Professor of Materia Medica and Therapeutics in the Queen's College, Belfast, has the following to say concerning rheumatism:
"Clothing and diet are of vital importance. The body should be incased in light woolen garments worn next to the skin. Overclothing is to be avoided. Thin flannel vest and drawers should be worn. The practice of piling on garment over garment, keeping the patient in a constant state of perspiration, should be condemned. Cork insoles are essential in wet weather. An exposure to cold and damp should be avoided and the patient should not expose himself during the prevalence of East winds."
In most cases an external application is beneficial. The formula given is a liniment and should be rubbed in thoroughly, causing a friction. This will release the tight tendons and the liniment can be readily absorbed into the pores of the skin.
FORMULA Rheumatism
Methyl Salicylate 2 oz.
Menthol 1/2 oz.
Tincture Capsicum 1 oz.
Linimentum Saponis 4 oz.
Alcohol sufficient to make 10 oz.
M. Fl. Sol
Sig. Rub in with friction every three or four hours.
A reliable drugstore has been selected out of each locality where this formula can be accurately and carefully filled. Select the store represented on this page which is most convenient to your address.

ADMIRAL TOGO TO BE KING'S GUEST
Notable Delegation Will Go to England for Coronation.

TOKIO, May 1.—A notable delegation from Japan will visit England as the representatives of the emperor at the coronation of George V. Prince and Princess Higashifushimi are the most prominent. But the most interesting personality to Englishmen will be Admiral Count Togo, the hero of Japan and the victor of the battle of the Sea of Japan. Count Togo has retired from active service in the navy, but he remains the noted figure in Japan. General Count Nogai, who commanded the attack on Port Arthur, accompanies the admiral.
Prince and Princess Higashifushimi will leave by the Kame Maru and will reach London June 8. The Japanese cruisers Kurama and Tone, both of which were built entirely in Japanese shipyards, are due to arrive at Dover or Portsmouth June 10. Vice Admiral Shimamura, who was Admiral Togo's chief of staff during the war, is in command of the coronation squadron.
Of this week when matters of importance will be discussed and Mrs. Julia S. S. born will speak on "The Clubs of Boston." The calendar for the month shows many interesting features, and a successful season is assured.

BANKER NEAR DEATH IN AUTO COLLISION
SAN JOSE, May 1.—Constable Lucas Patrons of Madrone yesterday made an investigation of the wrecking of an automobile in a collision with a horse-drawn wagon near that town yesterday, and reported to the sheriff today that A. J. Lowenberg, president of the City and County Bank of San Francisco was the driver; that the machine had struck a rig driven by J. C. Kirby, a rancher living two miles south of Madrone; that the horse had been killed, the automobile rendered almost into junk and Kirby badly though not fatally hurt.
Rushing along at forty miles an hour, the car attempted to pass the rig on a narrow road bordered by a ditch. The horse became frightened, with the result that the animal ran straight in front of a physician in one of the medical publications to stop the machine. The driver lost control of the automobile, which bolted through a fence and ran about in a vineyard until finally stopped.

From Thin to Plump Girls
The expressions of happiness and gratitude of several young lady patients for whom he prescribed the recently successful flesh forming product, known as three grain hypo-nutrient tablets, is related by a physician in one of the medical publications. It comes as a surprise to the ordinary layman to learn the heart throbs of distress which seems to affect so many young people who are becoming abnormally thin. Also to know that the weight can be so readily increased by the use, regularly for several months, of this peculiarly named preparation, now obtainable of the best physicians and apothecary shops in sealed packages with complete instructions for self-administration.

Will Oakland Submit to a Reign of Reufism?

ALAMEDA County's Treasurer, Boss Mike Kelly, has ordained that the annexed district shall not be represented in Oakland's new government. As a self-constituted political boss that is his pronouncement. He has not, of course, consulted the people in its preparation. Their interests are not considered in the matter. The people are assumed to be merely instruments for the accomplishment of the ends of the political boss and will truculently obey his mandate.

Boss Mike Kelly is the Treasurer of Alameda County. He has utilized the office to build up a powerful political machine, with himself as the "governor," to regulate its movements, for the purpose of controlling the public patronage for his own benefit. That was what Reuf did and accomplished in San Francisco, and finally brought about his own undoing. Boss Kelly is operating on the same lines as those followed by Ruef. Ruef reached a point where he had just as little consideration for the public interests as Commodore Vanderbilt had when he uttered the historic phrase, "The public be damned!"

When Ruef attained the position of San Francisco's political boss, he had no respect for pledges or principles. Boss Mike Kelly has reached the same stage in his career. The people of Oakland before the annexation election pledged themselves through the administration and representative members of representative civic and commercial organizations that in the event annexation was accomplished, a new charter should be framed and adopted and that the district annexed should have a fair representation in the government organized under it. There was not a dissenting voice in the community against the proposition. It appealed to every fair-minded citizen as the right thing. The people of the district which Oakland was then desirous of annexing accepted the pledge as being given in good faith. They proved their good faith by their works, voting in favor of annexation, and the measure carried.

The annexed district has fulfilled its part of the political compact. It is now squarely up to the people of Oakland as it existed before annexation to keep faith and fulfill their part of the obligation. The annexed district has united on a candidate for a commissionership in the new government in the person of P. C. Frederickson. He was one of the delegation which exacted the pledge from the administration and the representative civic and commercial organizations of Oakland prior to the annexation election. He was one of the oldest citizens of the district. He had taken a leading part in the advancement of all of its affairs. He had been engaged for a long term of years in business in it and had proved to be a man of unquestioned probity and possessed of those sterling qualities which constitute the trade-mark of good citizenship. He enjoyed the complete confidence of everybody acquainted with him, and everybody in the annexed district knew him. He was recognized as the leader of every progressive movement in the district.

In return, the annexed district has unanimously recognized Frederickson as the one man that is entitled and qualified to represent it in the government created by the new charter. He is the only candidate the annexed district has in the field to represent it. And in Frederickson's candidacy the annexed district calls on Oakland, as it existed before the annexation election, to keep the pledge it made to influence annexation.

Boss Mike Kelly says the annexed district shall not be represented. As boss he has no respect for pre-election pledges. In Kelly's estimation pre-election pledges are "piecrust, made to be broken." Frederickson will not submit to boss domination. He manfully refuses to Ruefize Oakland's new government. Therefore, Boss Kelly, in the arrogance of his self-asserted political domination of the administration of the municipal affairs of Oakland, says the annexed district shall not have any part in it. Boss Kelly is Oakland's political counterpart of San Francisco's former boss. All he cares for is the control and dispensation of its patronage. He wants the naming of every individual who is appointed to a municipal position under the new government. He cannot get that power in any other way except through the majority of the commission. The control of Commissioner No. 4, for which Frederickson is the annexed district's candidate, is essential to Boss Kelly to control the patronage—the disposition of the official loaves and fishes under the coming administration. Hence Kelly declares that the annexed district shall not be represented in the commission and frames up a ticket with his mario-nette for Commissioner No. 4.

The question which the voters of this city must answer for themselves at the election of May 9 is: Will they violate their pledge to the annexed district and Ruefize the new government for Boss Mike Kelly's benefit; or will they keep faith with the annexed district by the election of Frederickson who is not dominated by any boss and will not be a party to the organization of the new government in any other form than for their own benefit? Oakland cannot afford to put the progressive policies of the Mott administration in jeopardy by putting the control of its affairs in the hands of a political boss who will Ruefize it.

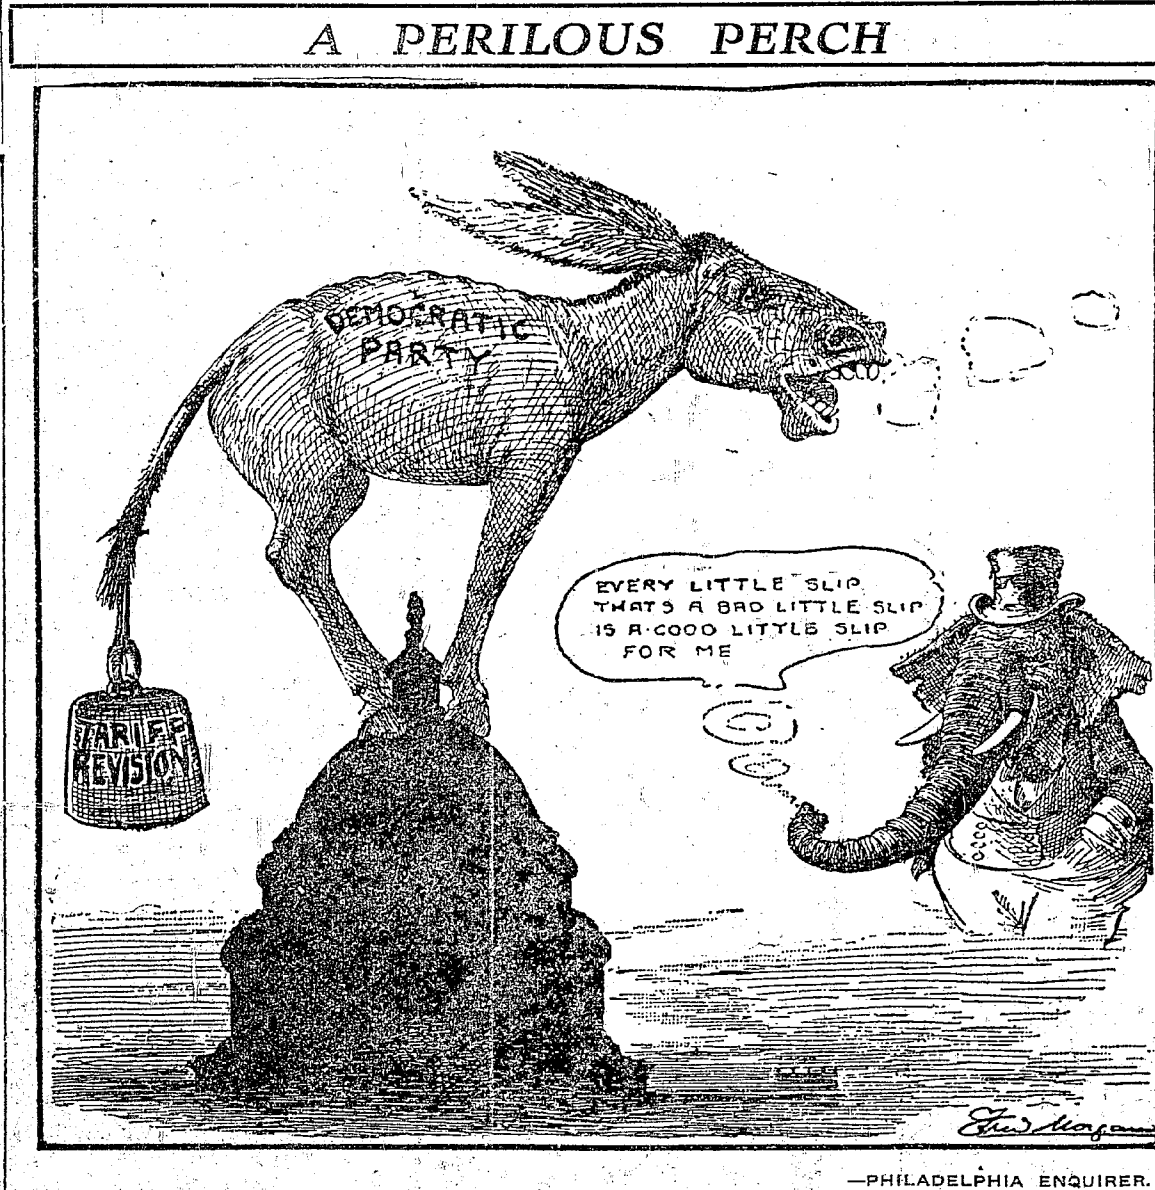

The political and the moral issues centers in Commissioner No. 4.

Improvement of the Rivers.

The improvement of the streams draining the great central basin of the State, to benefit navigation and prevent, at the same time, the overflow of the low valley lands in flood season, is now in a fair way to be carried out. The first thing to be done is the correction of the natural defects in the river beds which now arrest the flow of the flood waters, causing them to back up and menace the cultivated area on the banks of the streams and the flooding of the rich and highly productive delta islands at the confluence of the main water courses. The city of Sacramento voted $75,000 bonds for the purchase of land on Sherman island necessary to straighten and widen the stream to facilitate the discharge of the flood waters into Suisun bay. The owners of the strip of land on the island needed for the purpose have agreed to the capital city's terms and the closure of the deal will enable the United States army engineers to proceed without delay to take out the dangerous kink in the river. In the meantime Governor Johnson has approved the bill passed at the last session of the Legislature appropriating $15,000 for the purchase of lands required by the Federal engineers to correct the defects in the outflow of the San Joaquin river. So far as the communities most directly interested in these river improvements are concerned, they have complied with the requirements of the army engineers and the actual work of river correction now rests with the latter.

Colonel John A. Biddle, the United States army engineer in charge, has promptly taken up the consideration of these improvements and to carry out not only the plan of correcting the natural defects in the course of the river beds, but also the deepening of their channels to improve their navigability for light-draft vessels. Congress appropriated at the last regular session a sufficient sum to make a survey of the San Joaquin river from Stockton to Herndon—a distance of 250 miles—to determine its present and prospective importance as a commercial waterway. Previous Congressional provision had been made for the dredging of a channel nine feet deep and 200 feet wide from Stockton to the mouth of the river. The lower reaches of the San Joaquin are, therefore, not included in the new survey. As a preliminary step to carrying out the latter, Colonel Biddle has addressed a letter to all commercial organizations interested in the proposed river improvement suggesting a public hearing on the subject at which a free discussion can be had. The same friendly disposition is thus being shown by him toward the river communities as he showed toward Oakland when he invited the views of the municipal administration and the local commercial organizations regarding the proposed correction of the western water front. In this city's case the conference resulted in friendly and intelligent co-operation and the granting by the War Department of every concession applied for by the city. The San Joaquin valley communities may count on receiving the same fair and generous treatment.

If the route on Oakland avenue and extending to the Piedmont line is bought by the city for a public park, as the committee of the Council has decided to recommend, the Democratic little municipal neighbor will get the public improvement without costing it a dime.

Piedmont has been in the past a great beneficiary from public improvements made entirely at Oakland's expense. It ought either to be made to pay a pro rata for all such improvements or come into Greater Oakland and share in the cost of the maintenance of the improvements in which it is a joint beneficiary.

Contra Costa county has anticipated Alameda county in the construction of a new county hospital, the formal public dedication and opening of which took place at Martinez yesterday. Of course, Contra Costa county's institution is a minor affair when compared to the new hospital which is being projected for Alameda county, the Martinez structure having cost only $37,000, whereas Alameda county's new hospital, including the site, will cost approximately $500,000.

This World's People

Miss Florence Taylor Ward, of New York, whose father was a pioneer diamond-miner in South Africa, has had one of the family jewels—a diamond weighing nearly three-quarters of a carat—set in one of her front teeth.

Nina Turaviloff, a peasant woman at Telev, in the Caucasus, is probably the oldest person in the world. Early last month she celebrated her 115th birthday.

The Postmaster-General of Great Britain has in his department 11,400 bicycles, about one-half of which are used by the rural-delivery carriers. Each bicycle averages 10,000 miles of travel a year, making more than 110,000,000 miles in the aggregate.

The Southern Pacific Company is not allowing grass to grow under its feet in the electrification of its local steam railroads. The conversion of the Seventh street local lines began at Fruitvale on Saturday. Several hundred men are being employed on the Fruitvale section. The work is to be rushed, as the conversion of the entire line must be completed by the time the steam franchise expires which occurs on November 19. The conversion of the Webster street line is in the meantime progressing apace. A few months hence steam locomotives rolling through the heart of the city will be things of the past. And with their departure a couple of long-standing property deadlines will be wiped out.

The attempt to keep the name of Mayor Mott off the ballot was foolish and resulted, of course, as every sane and unprejudiced citizen expected it would do, in a failure. It was, however the vindictive last kick of the defeated leader of a lost cause. But the foolish effort to cut the Mayor out ought to have the effect of swelling his majority immensely on election day.

The early morning fire which wiped out the old Oakland Theater was a blessing in disguise. It has been a menace to the retail business district for many years, as dangerous a fire-trap as the old rookeries which formerly occupied the site of the Bacon block and which were finally destroyed by the same element that swept the big Oakland Theater barn out of existence this morning. The destruction of the latter property makes possible the natural business development of Twelfth street, between Webster street and Lake Merritt and removes the obstruction to the business expansion eastward of Thirteenth street.

LABOR CONTRAST

An instructive showing of the comparison of or contrast between the United Kingdom and the United States in wages of working people and their cost of living is contained in a report just issued by the labor department of the British board of trade. It presents the results of painstaking investigations which were made in 1909 to twenty-eight cities of the United States, of which two were on the Mississippi river and all the rest east of that stream, well distributed throughout the country. The twenty-eight had a total population of nearly 15,000,000. The British statistics used in the comparison were gathered nearly four years earlier, in the fall of 1906, but that circumstance, so far as it affected the result, doubtless favored England more than America, since those four years saw a greater rise of prices in America than in England.

The gist of the report is that in America hours of labor are shorter, wages are higher, rents are higher and cost of food is higher than in Great Britain. These general facts were known before, but what the report does is to show the percentage of difference in each case and to strike a balance exhibiting the net advantage of the American laborer over the British. The American workman gets more than two and a quarter times as much as his British cousin and works fewer hours, so that his hourly pay is nearly two and a half times as great. On the other hand, rents are about twice as high here as in England and the cost of food is about one-third more, so that the total cost of living here is a trifle more than half as much as it is in England. But as wages here are 130 per cent higher than in Great Britain, or 140 per cent by the hour, and the total cost of living is only 52 per cent higher here than there, it is evident that the American workman is by far the better off.

ANTIQUE MEXICO

Mexico offers a fine field for hunters of other things besides trouble. It is rich in antiquities, according to Consul Magill, of Guadalajara, who writes that "beautiful examples of copper and silver lustre ware are not uncommon, and hand-hammered solid silver plates have been known to sell at more than their bullion value. Old paintings of value may also be found." The consul also calls to the attention of American collectors that there is much old mahogany still to be had south of the Rio Grande, and adds: "Carvings in ivory, fans and ornaments done in the highest art of Old China are seen in the curio stores along with silk hand-embroidered shawls, also of Chinese origin. Old jewels in settings of centuries past are to be had."

MANY FEATURES AT GARDEN FETE

Ladies' Relief Society to Be Hostess at Next Saturday's Festival.

Society will reign supreme at the garden fete of the Ladies' Relief Society to be held next Saturday afternoon in the Old Foster grounds, Webster and Orchard streets. Diversions of all descriptions and amusements for the boys and girls have been provided by the directors, officers and members of the society. The chief center of attraction at the Woodward Park fete last year, will be in charge of Mrs. William G. Henshaw, who will be assisted by a company of charming young women. Many dainty articles will be scattered in the pond. Toys, fancy work and toys for the boys and girls will be caught in the fisherman's net.

Fun rides will be among the drawing features for the youngsters, who are looking forward to the journey through the picturesque grounds. There will be the fortune-telling concession in charge of Mrs. Marr East Miller; the fancy work tables will be attractively decorated and covered with articles made by the members of the Relief Society. Many donations have been given by the merchants of this city. Hats and dresses to fit the prettiest dolls will also be on sale. Mrs. Arthur Reed is chairman of the lemonade booth; Mrs. J. A. Hill chairman of the ice cream tables; Mrs. H. S. Kegan, fancy apron booth; Miss Helen Campbell, fancy-work booth; Mrs. Frank Girardell, tea and coffee; Mrs. Louis Chirardell, peanuts and popcorn; Miss Louise de Fremery, home-made candy.

WHIST TO BE PLAYED.

During the afternoon the parents of the children will enjoy a game of whist, which will be conducted in the parlors of the Foster mansion. It will be open to the public.

Every available portion of the palatial home will be used on that occasion. From the roof the patrons of the fete will have a view of the Golden Gate and Alameda county. The guests will be escorted to the roof-garden by a company of philanthropic women who are acquainted with the various points of interest about the bay.

Accommodations are being made for 1000 people on the Foster grounds next Saturday afternoon. According to the manner in which the tickets are being distributed, that reservation will be filled to overflowing.

CATHOLIC WOMEN ORGANIZE ORDER

Well Known San Franciscans Launch Daughters of Isabella.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The national order of Daughters of Isabella has organized a San Francisco chapter, which will have its headquarters at the St. Francis. Mrs. Mary A. McGuire, a member of Court Isabella No. 5 of New York, came here for the purpose of organizing the chapter in San Francisco. It will be known as No. 133.

The initiation of members was followed by the election and installation of officers. An elaborate banquet took place in the evening. The following officers were chosen: Grand regent, Mrs. Thomas Butler; vice-regent, Miss Julia White; lecturer, Mrs. Robert Young; prophetess, Mrs. Esther Crawford; historian, Mrs. Nellie Finn; financial secretary, Miss Anna P. Lacy; monitor, Mrs. James Coward; sentinel, Mrs. May Jefferson; guides, Miss Gertrude Quinn and Mrs. Charles Mayer; organist, Miss Margaretta Faldes; trustees—Mrs. Leachy, Mrs. P. I. Devlin, Miss Lillie Burns, Miss Thornton, Miss Haussler and Miss Anna Gill.

Father John O'Brien, pastor of St. Philip's Church, has been appointed chaplain.

Knows Nothing of Cut in Car Fare

Superintendent J. F. Potter of the Oakland Traction Company today declared that, insofar as he knew the company was not planning to reduce the fare from Oakland to Richmond as was rumored today.

"I have heard nothing whatever concerning the report that we are to cut the fare from fifteen cents to ten cents," he said.

Naval Constructor Injured in Fall

VALLEJO, Cal., May 1.—Word was received here that Assistant Naval Constructor E. Duncan Gatewood, attached to the Mare Island Navy Yard, was dangerously injured while on a fishing trip near St. Helena yesterday. The limb of a tree on which Gatewood was climbing broke and he fell some distance to the ground, injuring his spine and lacerating his scalp.

CHARITY ORGANIZATION TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

BERKELEY, May 1.—The annual meeting and dinner of the Berkeley Charity Organization will be held this evening in Town and Country Hotel. A number of more representative citizens are expected to attend the meeting, to discuss plans for the coming year. The society's work, annual reports will be presented and officers will be elected.

UNCLE SAM AGREES TO COMPROMISE SUIT

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The government suit against the American Copper Company has been compromised by an agreement between the company and the department of justice. The company agrees that its smelters at Butte, Anaconda and that at Falls will be equipped to prevent the contamination of the water. The government claims have done great damage to national forests.

GREAT SELLS-FLOTO CIRCUS ARRIVES IN ALL ITS GLORY

MADAM RAYAL with Sunday, smallest horse in the world and the best trained with Sells-Floto Circus.

With its elephants, many and ponderous, its lions and tigers and other ferocious beasts and reptiles of the jungle, its clowns of all descriptions, its handsome horses and gaily bedecked women riders and the various vocal, steam calliope, without which no real circus is complete, the Sells-Floto shows consolidated circus parade started from its huge tents at the circus grounds at Forty-eighth street and San Pablo avenue promptly at 10:30 o'clock this morning, delighting the eyes and hearts of many, circus-made children and their equally enthused elders all along its route.

It paraded San Pablo avenue to Broadway, down Broadway to Washington, and through all the principal cross streets.

And what if it did delay traffic and tie up the car lines awhile? When the circus comes to town, such things are mere trifles and are forgotten during the joy of witnessing the pageant.

COMBINES TWO SHOWS.

This circus, which is a combination of two of the most popular shows which toured the country separately heretofore, and which is recognized all over the United States as a circus of the best class and of the greater kind, is showing today and tomorrow in Oakland.

From the opening of the big show to the closing hippodrome races the acts are the best obtainable in Europe and America.

Among the most daring feats performed during the show is the act of Sig. Fello Carbo, who slides head downward on a wire from the dome of the big tent, a marvelous and almost inconceivable act, which is seen in any country for the first time.

DO DARING WORK.

The troupe Louvre, who have never been seen in America before, also do some daring work, while the all-star brigade of clowns, whose work is always new and laugh provoking to the fun loving public, are at their best this year and keep the circus crowds in a constant uproar of mirth.

The show is one of the finest and entertaining that has ever come to Oakland.

BANK PROPERTY GOES ON BLOCK

Reorganization of California Safe Deposit Said to Be Impossible.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Following Judge Seawell's formal denial this morning of the application of the reorganizing committee of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company for a postponement of the sale of the defunct bank's property at California and Montgomery streets, Receiver F. J. Symmes proceeded to the sale of the property at public auction.

Julius Raphael, president of the Depositors' Association, which also sought to have the sale postponed, said this morning that Judge Seawell's action in refusing another postponement balked all plans of reorganization.

The reorganizing committee asked for thirty or sixty more days' time, basing its application on telegrams received from Alvin Kretsch, president of the Equitable Trust Company of New York, in which the New York banker said he was confident the safe deposit company would be reorganized within a short time.

The 12,500 general depositors of the defunct bank will realize nothing on the sale of the property today even should a buyer be found willing to give a fair price. Receiver Symmes says he does not expect any bids for $500,000, and believes they will fall below this.

There is a trust mortgage of $500,000 in favor of the State against the property, and this must first be satisfied from the sale of the property.

OAKLAND INVESTORS STRIKE OIL FIND

The La Bane Oil Company has brought in a fine flowing well on their lease on the south sixty acres of the northwest quarter of section 6, 11-23, Maricopa district.

This well is furnished with the 6-14 inch casing and is 2040 feet to the pay sands, which have been penetrated but fifteen feet. There is over 100 feet of oil sand on this property, but it was only necessary to enter the sand fifteen feet to complete this well.

The quality of the oil on this lease is about 20 degrees Baume, and is same as produced from adjoining leases, and several companies in the field for development purposes.

This company is controlled by Oakland people and expects to carry on development work, making its lease one of the best on the Maricopa flat.

DROPS TWO STORIES; FOILS WAITING POLICE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—A ticket-of-leave man, too clever for a pair of hold patrolmen, escaped from the lodging house at 4455 California street, late last night. P. T. Toway, proprietor, notified Officers Smith and Doyle that a man who was in his house would, he thought, attempt to avoid paying his bill.

The officers rapped on the door for admittance, and a voice on the inside advised them that he would be out in a minute. They waited five minutes and then forced the door, and discovered that he had dropped two stories to the ground and escaped.

MAYOR MOTT ISSUES CAMPAIGN STATEMENT

Mayor Frank K. Mott has issued the following statement concerning his attitude in the present municipal campaign:

The present campaign is one which should appeal to every citizen of Oakland as imperatively compelling the issue of good government and continuance of the policies which have been pursued in this city during the last six years.

I firmly believe that the people of Oakland desire the continuance of the present harmonious and progressive conduct of municipal affairs, and it is my sincere belief that such a result can best be obtained by the election of George E. Gross for auditor, Edwin Meese for commissioner No. 1, W. J. Bacus for commissioner No. 2, Frederick C. Turner for commissioner No. 3 and John Forrest for commissioner No. 4.

I earnestly desire that every friend of good government in Oakland shall support these men, as well as the following nominees for the Board of Education: Dr. A. S. Kelly, Frank B. Cook, Calvin M. Orr, Harry Boyle, Miss Annie F. Brown and M. R. Bronner.

PASTOR TO SPEAK ON PASSION PLAY

Rev. A. W. Rider, D. D., will give his lecture on "The Passion Play" next Sunday at the Claremont Baptist Church, Alcatraz avenue. The lecture is illustrated by sixty colored views taken last season by an artist at Oberammergau, Bavaria, and represents the peasants in the costumes worn in the play during the solemn and imposing hundreds and thousands who have traveled to Bavaria have returned loud in the praises of the wonderful people who every ten years build such a vivid picture of the Lord's earthly life. Many have had their faith strengthened in the Divine sufferings by the historic pictorial representation of those who take part in the rendering of the greatest tragedy ever transacted on our planet.

PLAN BIG MEETING TO BOOST BOND ISSUE

The campaign committee of the progress and prosperity body of the Chamber of Commerce, which has opened up headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce, from which canvassers will be sent out to every part of the city between now and the ninth instant. The finance, publicity and executive committees of the progress and prosperity body are at the gathering tonight. An enthusiastic meeting is predicted. J. E. Mason is secretary of the campaign committee.

HOUSMAN TO BE SEEN AS ANTONIO AT YE LIBERTY

JOHN I. HOUSMAN, who will play Antonio with Richard Hotelling in title role, "The Merchant of Venice," at Ye Liberty tonight.

John I. Housman, one of the best known and most popular men in San Francisco and the bay cities, where for many years he has been prominent in business and social circles, will tonight appear on the boards, when he will play Antonio in "The Merchant of Venice" to the Shylock of Richard Hotelling at Ye Liberty playhouse.

This is by no means Housman's first appearance as an actor, for he has many times assumed roles in important amateur productions and has gained for himself a fame as one of the most talented actors of the city. He has been a professional stage in his finished work.

The character of Antonio which he will assume out of friendship for Richard Hotelling, whose intimate he has been for many years, will give him an excellent opportunity for the display of his talent, and should add materially to the strength of the ever-popular "Merchant of Venice."

ASSAILANT SHAKES THE HAND OF HIS VICTIM

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Dr. E. G. Frisbie, charged with battery for running down Miss Bessie Hogan, and later leaving her alone in her home, had his case dismissed by Judge Deasy today, after he had apologized and shaken hands with his victim.

The arrest followed an auto accident in which it was at first thought that Miss Hogan was badly injured.

TROUBLE EXPECTED IN GOTHAM STRIKES

New York, May 1.—Six parades of workmen to the number of several thousand each, a strike of over 5000 machinists and a walkout of a few hundred East Side bakers and shirtwaist makers, were the chief events of May Day here today.

Machinists are striking for an eight-hour day. The affected shops say they will employ non-union labor. The police expect trouble.

TARIFF PROGRAM BEFORE SENATE

Fiscal Committee Drops Discussion of Reciprocity to Take Up Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The Senate began today the consideration of a tariff program when the fiscal committee, which has before it the Canadian reciprocity, took up that measure and discussed plans for hearings on it. Members of the committee are disposed to give a general amount of time to those who desire to oppose or advocate the measure before it is reported to the open Senate, but no one would venture a guess during the committee fight.

The House continued consideration of the free list bill. In the House this really was the legislative day of April 29, that body on Saturday having taken a recess so as to avoid having to take up the recall calendar, the regular order for Monday.

BURGLAR ENTERS SALOON; GETS $15 IN CASH

After entering Charles Appledorn's saloon at Seventh and Washington streets at an early hour yesterday morning, a burglar forced the cash register with a large jimmy, and obtained $15 in cash. He escaped from the place on a hearing pedestrians passing, in his hurry leaving the jimmy on the floor of the saloon. The implement was found by Appledorn, who notified the police.

Three burglaries have been reported to the police as follows: John Lundgren, St. James house at Eighth and Clay streets, room entered during absence, $108 taken from clothing.

Mrs. J. J. Weltman of 330 East Eleventh street, residence entered through side window pried open with hatchet, nothing taken.

George Chase, 302 East Ninth street, residence entered by breaking glass of rear window but nothing taken.

THIS MAN WAS SHOT IN ONE OF HIS FOUR LEGS

NEW YORK, April 30.—Carefully placing a bundle on the desk in the Jamaica (L. I.) police station, William Rose of Sylvester avenue said Thursday in a matter-of-fact way: "I've been shot."

"Where?" inquired the lieutenant, as he reached for the phone, intending to call an ambulance.

"Here," replied Rose, unfastening his parcel, and displaying a pair of trousers with a hole in one of the legs. He explained that he had been passing a clump of weeds on the Rockaway road, south of Jamaica, when he heard a shot and the whiz of a bullet. He found the lead had gone through his right trousers leg, but had not even bruised the skin.

The police decided the shooting was accidental. Nevertheless they searched yesterday for the assailant of Rose's trousers.

NEWMAN CLUB ELECTION.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, May 1.—The Newman Club at its final meeting last night elected the following officers for the ensuing year: F. A. Plant, president; Agnes Scholl, second vice-president; Mary Hurly, recording secretary; Helen Webster, corresponding secretary; Donahar Lord, treasurer.

MISS ELOISE FREEMAN, whose wedding will be a mid-June event.

TO GO TO MONTEREY.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Bilger expect to leave during the coming week for Monterey and vicinity, where they will spend a fortnight traveling about in their touring car. They will also probably extend their present trip to include Los Angeles, where they will visit friends for a few days. During the summer months Mr. and Mrs. Bilger expect to take many out-of-town trips in which they will be accompanied by parties of their friends.

The Bilger residence at Kensington Heights is one of the most attractive homes in the terraced district and Mrs. Bilger is known as a delightful hostess at many social functions. She has been entertaining frequently in an informal way during the late winter season.

MARRIED ON SATURDAY.

The wedding of John P. Irish, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth L. Lamb was solemnized at Trinity Church, in San Jose, on last Saturday night. Both young people are prominently known in Oakland, the bridegroom being the son of Colonel John P. Irish and a graduate of Stanford University.

Mr. and Mrs. Irish, Jr., will spend the summer in Stockton, going to Washington, D. C., for the coming winter.

MISS FREEMAN TO WED.

The wedding of Miss Eloise Freeman and Hugh Gallagher, whose engagement was recently announced, will take place on June 19, at Saint Francis de Sales church. The bride-to-be is an attractive and popular girl and is being showered with numerous social attentions. On May 6 Mrs. W. H. Willis will give an elaborate affair in her honor, and for the afternoon of May 13 Miss Ella O'Connell will give another party complimentary for Miss Freeman.

MISS LAYMANCE TO DEPART.

Miss Hazel Layman will leave this Wednesday for Sacramento, where she will be the house guest of Miss May Heimann, a belle of that city.

TRAVELERS IN EUROPE.

The friends of Mrs. George W. Percy are regretting her near departure for Europe, where she will join her daughter, Miss Isabel Percy, and spend much of the time in Munich.

Other Oaklanders who will travel abroad this summer are Mrs. Charles D. Pierce, her sister, Mrs. Russ, and Dr. Raymond Russ; Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Larkey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butters, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Searies.

Miss Phoebe Emsley of Berkeley, accompanied by Miss Alice Graham, is leaving this week for a trip around the world. They are to leave via Portland for the Orient, thence across India, taking in all the points of interest on route, including Egypt, Italy, France, England and other countries. They are to be away nearly a year.

MARRIED YESTERDAY.

Miss Elizabeth Remmel of Alameda and Dr. Frank P. Jackson of this city were married yesterday afternoon by Rev. Edgar F. Gee, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Jackson is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Remmel of 1257 St. Charles street, Alameda. The Remmels are one of the most prominent families in the Episcopal city, where they have resided for fifty years. She is a sister of Miss Claire Remmel.

Dr. Jackson is prominent in both professional and social circles in the bay city.

Shortly after the ceremony the couple left for the southern part of the State, where a honeymoon of several weeks will be spent.

UPON THEIR RETURN DR. AND MRS. JACKSON WILL TRAVEL THROUGH THE STATE, VISITING AT ONE OF THE LOCAL HOTELS UNTIL THEY HAVE DECIDED UPON A PERMANENT RESIDENCE.

CLUB MEETS.

Mrs. Carrie E. Hall entertained the Ladies of the Round Table on Friday afternoon, Mrs. Julia E. Travis, vice-president, presiding. After enjoying two instructive papers given by Mrs. Merrill and Mrs. Gray and the story of "The Right of Way," by Gilbert Parker, delightfully told by Mrs. Edwards, the afternoon was given over to pleasure, the club entertaining Mrs. Joseph Burrows and Mrs. Archie Currie, mother and sister of the hostess. Refreshments were daintily served at a large round table, made attractive with beautiful flowers. The club will meet with Mrs. Sherman on May 7.

SET WEDDING DATE.

The date for the wedding of Miss Hazel Dennis to Louis Walker Layne has been set for Wednesday, May 17, and will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Dennis, in Berkeley. Miss Elsie Stoddard will attend the bride as maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Lottie Bocarde and Miss

MISS ELOISE FREEMAN, whose wedding will be a mid-June event.

Mildred Jordan. The attendants are sorority sisters of the bride-elect, who is a prominent member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Layne is a member of the Abacadabra Club.

LARGE DANCE.

The student body of St. Mary's College will give a large dance next Friday evening at Maple Hall, which will be handsomely decorated for the occasion in the college colors. About 300 young folk will attend the affair. This is the first dance which the college has given this season.

INTERESTING ENGAGEMENT.

Miss Ethlyn Ebner and Harry Howell Kennedy's engagement is causing much interest in local circles. Miss Ebner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ebner of Hollywood and is taking a post graduate course at the State University. The wedding of the couple will take place in the month in the summer and they will return to the bay cities to make their home. Kennedy comes of a well-known family in the college town and is in business across the bay. He is a graduate of Yale and a Zeta Psi fraternity man.

WEDDING LAST NIGHT.

Miss Lou Relfe and A. W. Williams were married last night at a quiet home ceremony at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Relfe of Alameda. Following the marriage and reception which followed the couple left on their wedding trip. Upon their return they will live in this city. Williams is a prominent clubman and is connected with the Southern Pacific Company.

SUMMER PLANS.

Wallace Sabin and a party of friends, including Miss Eleanor French of Berkeley and Uda Waldrop, the well-known pianist, are planning a WEEK-END PARTY.

The executive committee of the Saturday Night Cotillion, according to its usual yearly custom, will spend a week-end at Muir Woods and have planned the affair for May 13 and 14. The committee is composed of a dozen of the younger set of the Berkeley and Oakland social set. Among them are Leon Gove, Fletcher Slosson, Herbert Bred and Miss Eleanor French.

McLEOD-ECCELESTON NUPTIALS.

Miss Lillian Eccleston and Dalton McLeod will be married on the evening of Monday, May 22, by the Rev. Edward Eccleston, an uncle of the bride. Nearly 200 local folk will attend the Eccleston home, where the ceremony will be performed.

Mrs. Steb Winchester Teal will attend her sister as matron of honor, and Mr. Teal will be best man at the wedding. The bride will wear the conventional wedding gown of white satin, elaborated with lace, and Mrs. Teal, who is a bride of a year or so, will wear her wedding dress of satin and lace. Following their honeymoon the couple will make a possession of a handsome residence in Piedmont-by-the-Lake which is being built for them.

Miss Eccleston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Eccleston, well known here, and the former is cashier of the Oakland Bank of Savings. McLeod is the son of J. W. McLeod and has many friends in this city.

HAS 3 RULES FOR LONGEVITY

NEW YORK.—Mrs. Mary A. Irons has celebrated the one hundred and first anniversary of her birth. When a reporter called on Mrs. Irons she came into the parlor with a firm step and a bright eye. When asked to what she attributed her long life, she replied:

"I have three rules which, if conscientiously followed out, will result in long life. First, always eat your meals regularly, and not more than three a day. Sleep eight hours and rise at 6 in the morning. Perhaps the most important of all is getting plenty

GIRL DRIVEN FROM CAVE BY HUNGER

WILKESBARRE, Pa.—After sleeping in a mountain cave near Moosic for three nights, Lizzie Kaiser of Duryea was forced from her rendezvous and going to a house in Moosic begged food so that she might carry it back to her cave. She told the women from whom she received supplies that she had been driven from her home in Duryea by her father. The girl is about twelve years old. She was poorly clad and emaciated looking, and the woman gave her food and tried to detain her while she summoned the charity agents, but the child would not remain and returned to her cave dwelling to spend another night of her primitive existence.

Mrs. W. B. Duggan of the Scranton Association Board of Charities was notified of the girl's strange story and sent out to find her. The cave described was visited by the charity agent, but only traces of food were found there. The child, it is thought, went deeper into the woods. The state police were notified of the girl's disappearance in the mountains and will search for her.

GETS LICENSE, BUT NAMES WRONG GIRL

BALTIMORE.—William Rosenfeld, having planned for his marriage to Miss Rosie Margolis, asked his brother Aaron to get the license. Aaron posted to the license clerk's office yesterday afternoon. When he was asked the name of the girl he became confused and said it was Miss Rosie Lapides. When he handed the license to his brother there followed a tearing of hair. Both rushed back to the license office and found it closed.

When Miss Margolis looked through the papers today she was astounded to see that a wedding license had been issued to her sweetheart to marry another girl, and she went into hysterics. Miss Rosie Lapides, also scanning the papers, learned to her surprise that a license had been obtained for her marriage to Mr. Rosenfeld. Miss Lapides became excited.

Accompanied by Brother Aaron, William hurried to the court house today and had the name on the license changed. Then visits were made to the young women's homes, and the whole affair was smoothed over. The wedding will take place tomorrow

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

VANDERBILT'S WHIP ACCUSED OF BIGAMY

Florence Schenck, III and Pen-nilens, Declares Charles Wilson Is Husband.

PARIS, May 1.—There is a blonde little American girl in and pen-nilens in a garret of an obscure hotel in Paris who declares that she is the wife of Charles Wilson, known on two continents as the manager of Alfred Vanderbilt's show horses.

A few months ago Wilson married a Boston heiress. At that time the prospective father-in-law objected to Wilson on the ground of "his acquaintance with a certain Florence Schenck."

Here is the latest record transcribed at Somerset House and that "acquaintance."

"At the registry office, Paddington, London, eighth of May, 1908, Charles Henry Wilson, aged forty-five, divorced husband of Elizabeth Alice Wilson, was married to Florence Rosser Schenck, aged twenty-one, daughter of Dr. Powhattan Schenck, surgeon of Virginia, U. S. A."

The witnesses were A. D. Procco, a personal friend of Alfred Vanderbilt, and Valeska Surratt.

Florence Schenck said yesterday there had been no divorce and that her husband had been in constant communication with her up to within a few weeks of what she brands as his bigamous marriage in Boston. He wrote loving letters promising to return, saying that she was his only happiness.

"I am not divorced from Charles Wilson," she said. "He has never even talked of divorce in any of his letters."

"He spoke only of coming back to me. He wrote again and again that he could only find happiness in my arms. Then came this awful thing, his so-called marriage to that poor woman. He must have been in desperate need of money to run such an awful risk of prison. I am surely prosecuted."

Miss Schenck or Mrs. Wilson, who overcame by physical weakness, but persisted in saying:

"I shall go to London as soon as possible and swear out a warrant against my husband, who has never been seen. As a matter of fact, she is without money, either for railway fare or for food. That she has shelter is owing to friends. Charles Wilson is now in London, managing the coaching season for Alfred Vanderbilt."

Marry in Cafe

PORTLAND, Ore., May 1.—Romance thrust itself into the grill of Richards' cafe and Hans von Turf, who says that he is a German baron, and Miss Elizabeth Blackburn, daughter of a Tennessee supreme court judge, were married beside the table where the romance was the subject of matrimony was broached.

A year ago von Turf met Mrs. L. L. Ackley, sister of the bride, in Great Falls, Mont., and through her Miss Blackburn, a former lover of his, first sight, says von Turf, but the wanderlust still gripped and he left Great Falls. Recently Mrs. Ackley and her sister came to Portland and were followed by von Turf. Last night they had a little celebration in the grill.

Von Turf and Miss Blackburn were talking in a subdued tone when the former shouted:

"I'll dare you to fight now." A hurried trip was made for a license and the wedding was solemnized. "My estates are broad; there is no occasion to worry about bills," said von Turf. The couple left for San Francisco, where they will make their home.

Actress Under Knife

SANTA BARBARA, May 1.—When May Robson, actress, appeared before the foot-lights at the Potter Theater Saturday night, starting in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," little did the audience think that she was then battling against illness and that it was only by wonderful skill that she was able to carry out her part.

As a matter of fact, the stage woman was near collapse. When the curtain fell on the last act she fell in a swoon. Physicians worked with her throughout the night, and this morning she was removed to a local hospital, where she underwent an operation. Late yesterday she rallied from the anesthetic and word was given out from the sick room that she will rapidly recover.

New Singer for U. S.

PARIS, May 1.—Among other new and interesting stars of opera who will be heard next season in America, one of the most talked of will be Maggie Teyte, late of the Opera Comique, whose engagement by Andrew Dippel has already been announced.

Miss Teyte, who changed her name on the advice of Jean De Reszke to Tait in order to assure its being pronounced correctly in English, quite young and, in a Dresden china way, quite pretty.

She sang for two seasons or more with much success at the Opera Comique, where she succeeded Mary Garden in the lyrical soprano roles.

Dies at 100

SANTA CLARA, May 1.—Mrs. Barbara Clark died at her home here last evening at the age of 100 years. She was a native of Portugal and had been a resident of Santa Clara for 45 years. She enjoyed good health until six years ago. She was the widow of Joseph Lucas.

Wringer Chokes Girl; Doctor Saves Life

CORSICA, S. Dak.—While helping at laundry work, Sarah Y. Lar Lindon, aged fourteen years, had her scarf caught in the wringer, operated by gasoline engine. The scarf tightened about her neck so quickly that she had no opportunity to call for assistance.

Her mother chanced to look toward her and, discovering her predicament, hastened to her and released her. The girl was unconscious and her mother believed her to be dead.

It took a physician some time to bring her back to consciousness. Her neck was badly cut and bruised.

Women Sell Themselves For Home, Says Anarchist

EMMA GOLDMAN, who brands women parasites.

CHICAGO.—A letter in which Emma Goldman, admitted anarchist, vouches for every statement she is reputed to have made in Kansas City recently, was made public here today.

"Did I say women are mere parasites?" she wrote. "Certainly I did. They are, and nothing more. Woman is a slave, the bag and baggage of man, sometimes the chattel legally, at other times by necessity. You seem horrified when you quote me as saying this:

"Most women only want to be supported and sell themselves for a home. My theory is that a woman who sells herself in marriage or out is a prostitute. The woman who marries for money is just playing for bigger game. She is more shameless because she poses as being respectable. I see no reason why an able-bodied woman should not work except when she has a very young baby. With making a living would come the feeling of liberty. She would no longer be humiliated and robbed of her individuality."

"Well, the reporter did not get me wrong for once. I told him all that and a lot more. And further, I mean every word. A man has no more right to provide for a woman than has the woman to provide for him. The woman who does work for a man is no more a white slave than is the wife who takes money from her husband."

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—The five years of matrimonial muddles suffered by Thomas M. Cleary, a wholesale liquor dealer of Holyoke and wealthy, came to an end when Mr. Cleary was granted a divorce from Lucy A. Cleary. Before obtaining his decree Cleary has been forced to appear against his wife in court three times—twice as a defendant and once as plaintiff.

Mr. Cleary is fifty-five years old. His divorced wife is almost thirty years his junior. Their courtship was a stormy one. It began way back in 1899 at Holyoke, when Mrs. Cleary, then Miss Warren, was a schoolgirl of sixteen summers with two braids and hair ribbons. He was just amassing his fortune. In spite of her tender years, Mr. Cleary proposed marriage at that time—so Mrs. Cleary testified in one of the three actions— even setting the wedding date a year later.

She demurred on the ground that she did not know her own mind. In 1906 she went to New York, stopping at 502 West One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street. Mr. Cleary followed her to New York, sought her for weeks and finally met her by chance as he was leaving a Broadway theater. He proposed on the spot. She accepted. All went well until one night she espied a younger male friend, and left her elderly fiancé to speak to the young man. Cleary in a huff fled back to Holyoke.

Then Miss Warren brought suit for $25,000 breach of promise in the New York courts. She presented a stack of letters in evidence, which contained such endearing terms as "Little Fiddlesticks" and "My Beautiful Baby." The suit was quashed when Mr. Cleary hastened from Holyoke and married the girl.

For a year they lived peacefully in Holyoke. One day Mrs. Cleary packed duds and "returned to mother." Shortly after she began suit for a limited divorce and separate support. She set forth that Cleary was no proper husband for a girl-wife.

In return Mr. Cleary began his suit for divorce which has just ended.

: BLAMES OBESITY CURE :

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn.—Judge Joel Reed has granted a decree of divorce to E. N. Slipperley from Adelaide Nash Slipperley. Dr. Thomas J. Ward, a patent medicine manufacturer of New York City, was named as co-respondent.

Slipperley has instituted, also, an action against Mrs. Slipperley, asking $35,000 for services he alleges he rendered to the woman he has divorced. His counsel announced, after getting the divorce decree, that Slipperley will sue Dr. Ward for $70,000 for alleged alienation of Mrs. Slipperley's affections.

The Slipperleys are prominent and wealthy Connecticut society folk. Mrs. Slipperley is the daughter of the late Edward Nash of Westport and a sister of the late State Senator Lloyd Nash. She is a large woman and it is said she first met Dr. Ward when she was seeking a cure for obesity.

Dr. Ward is married and has a country home at Freeport, L. I. According to the testimony in the divorce action taken before Referee Beardsley, Dr. Ward and Mrs. Slipperley were at the Mansion House at Saratoga, N. Y., during the race week in 1909, and occupied the same room.

Mr. Slipperley is a son of an old New England family. He and his wife entertained much at their fine home in West avenue, South Norwalk.

GRAY AT PORTLAND.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 1.—Carl R. Gray, who will succeed John R. Stevens as head of the Hill roads in Oregon, arrived here yesterday. Gray had little to say regarding his new position, and declined to discuss his plans and the plans of the Hill interests in Oregon until a later time, when he should be a little more familiar with surrounding circumstances.

LOS ANGELES.—Ladda Tracka recites a strange story in suit which has been filed in the Superior Court. Kidnaping, slavery and love are features of the recital which he makes in one of the oddest suits brought to the attention of any court in Southern California.

When he was 10 years old he resided across a vacant lot from Mrs. Nellie Hersey, a widow of 55, in Columbus, O. She is the defendant in the action, which is now pending. He declares that she early exhibited a fondness for him and that she was accustomed to caress him and gorge him with candy.

From his story it seems that she was infatuated with the child, who was 34 years her junior. She proposed to him that they should take a trip and see the world.

Stealthily he slipped away from his home and rode his bicycle to Toledo. There he was met by the widow. For several years they traveled about from city to city.

He asserts that she convinced him that she had learned that all his relatives had died. He was not well, and felt that he was completely in her power. The elopement took place sixteen years ago.

They came to Redondo in 1898. He should go to work. From that time until a short time ago, he alleges, he has been her slave, and turned over to her every cent he made.

He asserts that he grew so accustomed to being in her control that he thought little of it and the thought of leaving her never suggested itself to him until he fell in love with a beach girl.

He paints himself as a pretty spectacle when he met the object of his real affections. He alleges that the only clothes he possessed were a pair of overalls, and that he had no means of getting his long hair cut or his face shaved, as the widow took his earnings as fast as he collected them.

His sweetheart arranged so that he could get new clothes and had the services of a barber. He declares his friends did not know him after the transformation.

He then had the courage to throw off the control of the woman, whom he pictures in the light of an "old man of the sea." He is now suing for a lot, valued at $2500, which he asserts Mrs. Hersey brought with his money. He also asks for $4000 which she is alleged to have deposited in the bank out of his earnings, and for $2900 damages.

For a year they lived peacefully in Holyoke. One day Mrs. Cleary packed duds and "returned to mother." Shortly after she began suit for a limited divorce and separate support. She set forth that Cleary was no proper husband for a girl-wife.

In return Mr. Cleary began his suit for divorce which has just ended.

LAFAYETTE SCHOOL FETE WILL BE ATTRACTION

The fete to be given under the auspices of the Mothers' Club of the Lafayette school will next Saturday attract the children of the local schools, many of whom will take part in the festivities.

Mrs. I. Wollin, one of the enthusiastic workers in the club, has been appointed chairman of the general committee. Mrs. W. A. Spencer has assumed charge of the program.

A May-pole dance with a company of prettily-dressed girls in artistic costumes will be one of the attractive features of the festival.

Many plans are being made by the mothers, who will be assisted by the teachers and the pupils of the higher grades. The booths will be located in the school building as well as on the grounds.

HAYWARD BOY SCOUTS VISIT SALT WORKS

HAYWARD, May 1.—Six members of the Cuckoo Patrol, Boy Scouts, of Hayward, hiked to the salt marsh near here last Saturday afternoon and were shown over the entire plant from the driers to the packing house. A great deal of interest was shown in the process used in refining the raw material. J. E. Oliver, owner of the works, which is one of the largest in the State, took the boys for an automobile ride through the country surrounding and before their return home presented them with two sacks of salt.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE ARE HOMELESS IN BANGOR

THIRD OF CITY IS BURNED

Firemen Helpless to Cope With Destroying Element Until Rain Comes to Aid

State Turns Attention to Housing and Feeding Hungry and Homeless

BANGOR, Me., May 1.—Homeless, hungry and exhausted by the long fight against the flames which last night destroyed virtually a third of the city of Bangor, thousands of persons today faced the problem of providing themselves with food, shelter and clothing, while city and state authorities began the consideration of plans for the re-building of the city.

When dawn broke over the stricken city hundreds of groups of men, women and children could be seen huddled around smoldering bon fires or stretched along the edge of the smoking ruins endeavoring to warm and dry themselves.

RAIN SAVES CITY.

Although the rain brought discomfort to the homeless, it was the means of bringing under control the great conflagration which raged for more than several hours last night. At a time when the battle against the flames seemed hopeless a providential shift of wind and a downpour of rain drove the fire back over the burned district and drowned out the flames which had just started in unburned parts.

At 7:45 a. m. today the fire was virtually extinguished. One-third of the city had been destroyed, including some of the finest homes in the residential part of Bangor; all the public buildings with the exception of the city hall, and the greater part of the retail district.

$6,000,000 IS DAMAGE

Estimates of the entire loss varied, but it was generally thought at least $6,000,000 worth of property had been destroyed. The loss of life so far as known was confined to two persons and only a half-dozen injured had been admitted to the hospitals.

The rain and change of wind having solved the problem of controlling the fire, the attention of the authorities was directed today toward housing the homeless and feeding the hungry. Every household in Bangor whose home escaped destruction opened his doors last night to less fortunate ones, but in spite of this thousands were forced to spend the night in the streets surrounded by the few articles of clothing and household utensils they had been able to save from the flames. Many of these suffered greatly from cold and exposure.

FEEDING IS PROBLEM.

More serious, however, than the problem of sheltering the homeless was the matter of feeding them, on account of the destruction of food supplies in the retail district. Every morning train brought food to the city, but it was some little time before the authorities could arrange for its distribution.

To aid the police in the protection of the little heaps of furniture and clothing saved from their fire by individual householders, one company of militia was ordered out for patrol and guard duty.

700 EMPLOYEES OF M., K. & T. R. R. RESUME WORK

SALINA, Missouri, May 1.—The 700 employees at the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway shops here resumed work today after a close down since April 26, on account of three months' appropriation having been exhausted.

ROUTINE OCCUPIES TIME OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Usual Grist of the County Business That Accumulates Each Week Was Disposed of at Today's Session

At a meeting of the board of supervisors this morning the chamber of commerce of Berkeley asked for an appropriation of $500 from the advertising fund to aid in the publication of a pamphlet descriptive of that city, which is intended for dissemination in various parts of the country. The request was referred to the committee of the whole. The application of D. U. Toffelmeyer, pastor of Eden township, for docket fees referred to the purchasing agent, Supervisor Kelley, eliciting the information from Assistant District Attorney Mark that, under the law at the present time, it remains the duty of the supervisors to furnish justices with dockets.

Frank M. Reed of 1070 Broadway offered the property of the Baptist college at Highland Park, at the corner of East Twenty-eighth street and Fourth avenue, as a site for the proposed new county hospital. He showed that there were five buildings on the site, which latter consisted of 12 acres. These

MEXICAN VICE-PRESIDENT PARIS

Denies Having Stated That the Revolution Was Fomented By Americans

United States Officers at Calixco Jail the Secretary of Junta.

PARIS, May 1.—Vice-President Corral of Mexico arrived here today and in a statement made to the Associated Press denied that he had ever given an interview at Santander or elsewhere, in which he criticized Americans as having fomented the revolution in Mexico.

Secretary of Junta Is in Jail in the City of Calixco

CALEXICO, Cal., May 1.—Antonio Araujo, secretary of the Liberal Junta in Los Angeles, who came to Calixco last Thursday to look into reports of depredations of insurgents on American property, is in jail here at the instance of the United States authorities. He was arrested on a charge of violating the rules of the international line laid down by General Tasker H. Bliss, U. S. A., commanding the Department of California, in crossing the border and conducting negotiations with the Mexican rebels.

Peace Meeting Place Scene of Former Hard Fought Ring Contest

EL PASO, May 1.—The meeting place selected for the peace conference lies on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, amid a grove of willows. Swollen by the spring freshets, the mud-laden river roars over a dam, and the trees bend and sway in the rushing waters. It is the second time the spot has made a bid for fame, according to Detective William Smith of the El Paso force, who, 12 years ago, was "Australian Billy Smith," the prizefighter. At that time it was matched to fight Billy Zeala, related Smith today. We had trouble with the authorities on the American side and finally concluded to stage the mill on the Mexican side. We fought the river, most of us on the backs of ponies we had hired, and right there, where they are going to try to make peace in Mexico this week, we had a real man's fight—fourteen rounds with bare knuckles—and I was mighty glad when the referee hailed me as the winner. I wonder how many rounds this scrap will go.

Forty-four rifles destined for the rebel camp, were confiscated by troops of the Fourth Cavalry yesterday, when delivery of the arms was attempted in fulfillment of a promise made before there was any thought of the present armistice.

Carabajal Must Have Full Power to Treat if Peace Prevails

EL PASO, Texas, May 1.—Whether Dr. Carabajal, the government peace envoy, who is expected here tonight, comes with full authority to act for President Diaz, depends in large measure the probability of peace terms being agreed upon by the end of the week. That the insurgents are more than willing to end hostilities is not denied, but they will not treat with Carabajal unless he comes with full powers.

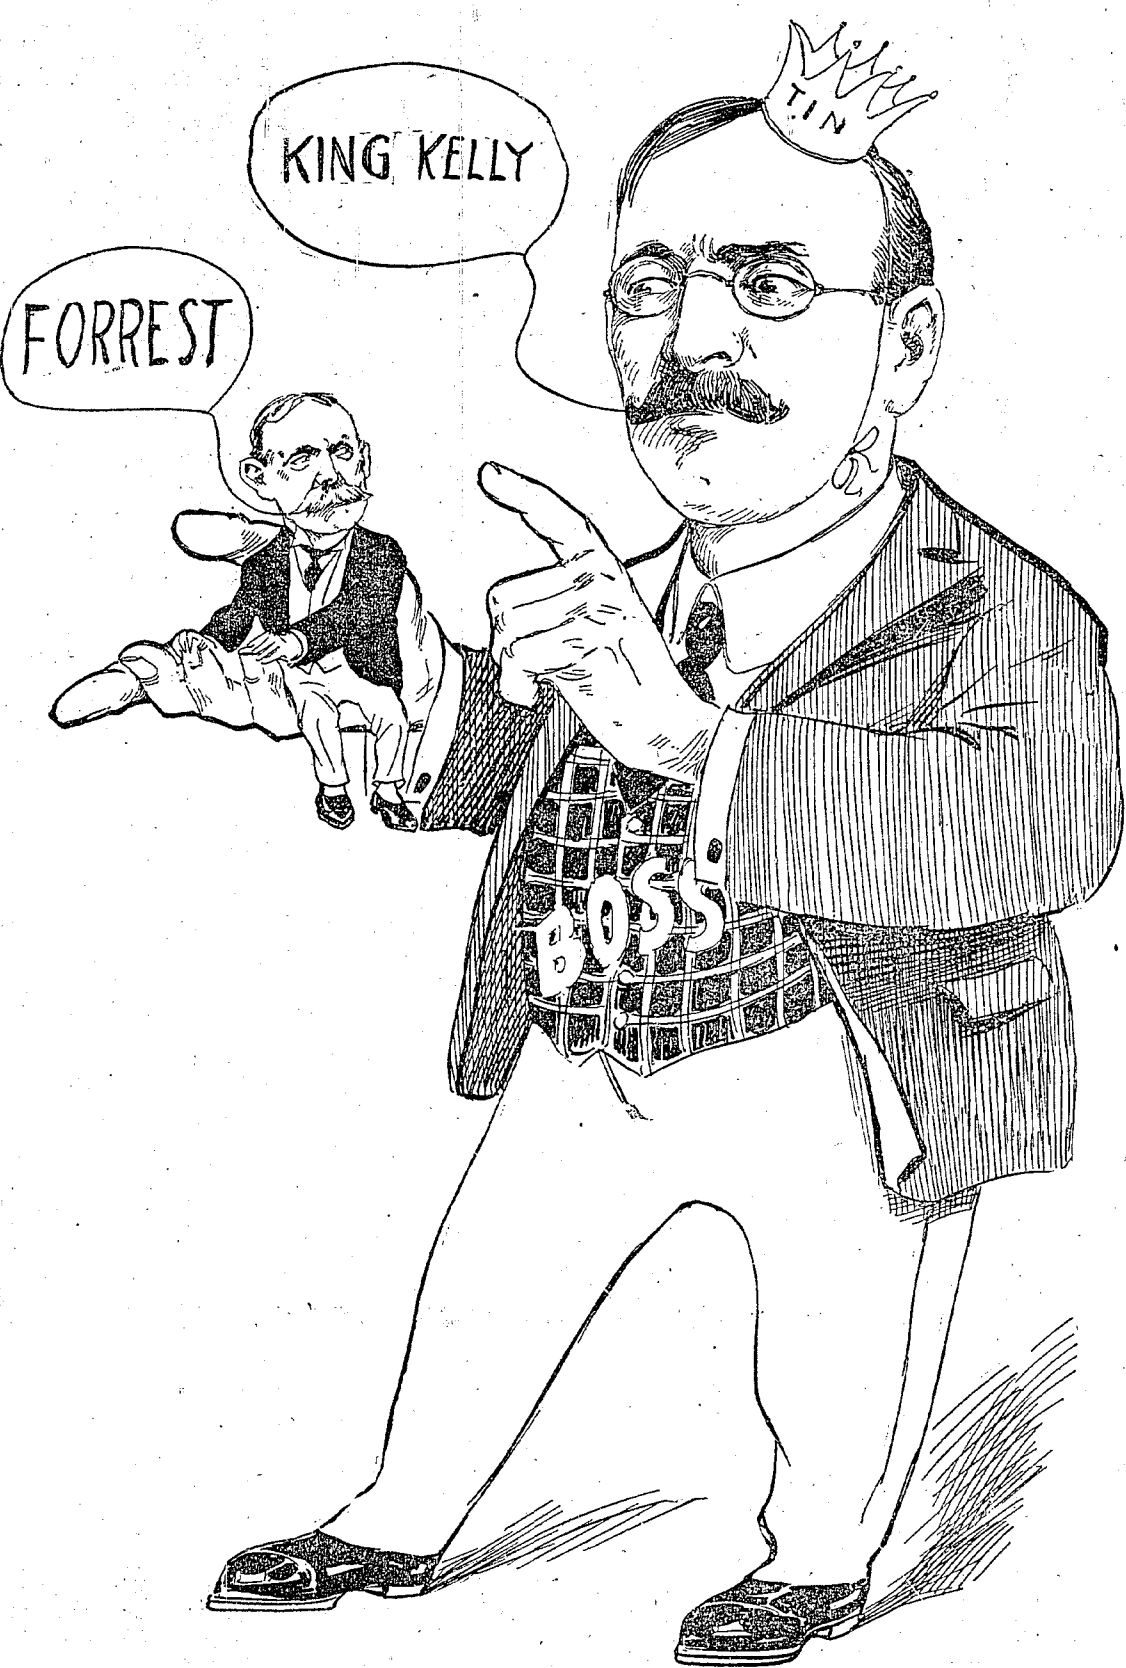

LICENSES GRANTED.

Saloon licenses were granted as follows: Martin Tiedeman, Sumo; Charles L. Powell, Santa Rita Junction, and S. Hansen, Centerville.

The indigent clerk was instructed to provide transportation for Mrs. Ham of Post street, Alameda; to San Jose. The family is a charge upon the county because of the desertion of the father and husband, but has friends who will care for it in the city referred to.

Maps of Thousand Oaks Court and Avilston Heights were filed but none of the streets in them were excepted as public thoroughfares. Adjourned.

OAKLAND BANK EMPLOYEE WEDS

Pretty Ceremony at Wedding of Miss Hazel Smith and Charles B. Hood.

At a pretty home wedding yesterday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, 1371 Twenty-third avenue, East Oakland, Miss Hazel Louise Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Smith, became the bride of Charles B. Hood, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Hood, of 65 Valley street, this city.

The ceremony was performed at 1 o'clock by Rev. George W. White, pastor of the First Methodist church of Oakland. In the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Vileta Smith, as maid of honor, and by Miss Vivian Uhl of Sacramento as bridesmaid. W. W. Lyndon of San Francisco attended the groom as best man.

The home was prettily decorated, the color scheme being pink and white. Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hood left for the southern part of the State, where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in Oakland in a pretty little bungalow which has been fitted up by the groom in Twenty-third street.

Both the bride and groom are popular in the younger circles here, where they have hosts of friends. Hood is employed as bookkeeper in the First National Bank.

FREDERICKSON GLASS PLANT IS PREY TO FLAMES

Candidate for Commissioner No. Four, Banqueted by Men of Pacific Fuel Company

Retires From Corporation After Four Years' Service as President.

The directors of the Pacific Fuel Company held a banquet at the Saddle Rock cafe on Saturday evening in honor of P. C. Frederickson, who is retiring from the company after four years' service as president of the board of directors. John G. Lubben presided as toastmaster, and speeches were made by several of the directors in praise of the splendid business administration of the affairs of the company by Mr. Frederickson.

At the close of the banquet Frederickson was presented with a beautiful solitaire diamond scarf pin, the gift of his late associates, the presentation being made by the secretary of the company, Frank G. Coxhead. In a few well-chosen remarks he voiced the regret of the company at Frederickson's retirement, and expressed the pride felt by all present in Frederickson's splendid fight for the office of Commissioner No. 4 of Greater Oakland.

The banquet was followed by a theater party at the Orpheum. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Frederickson, Mr. and Mrs. N. Frederickson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. John G. SLEUTHS TO BARE ALLEGED SCANDAL

Acceptance of Bribes Charged to Ohio State Legislators.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 1.—Members of the Legislature are flocking into the city today, hours earlier than usual on Monday, because of the charges made by detectives who have been here for weeks secretly investigating legislative bribery, that they have unearthed the worse scandal in the history of the Ohio General Assembly.

Senators and Representatives who are opening charged with having accepted money had not reached the city early today, so their version of the detective story is not known at first hand, although several are quoted from their home towns denying the charge.

Governor Harmon is to consult with Attorney General Hogan regarding the sensational developments. Three detectives, F. S. Harrison of New York and A. C. Brady and David Berry of Chicago, will be arraigned in police court for alleged bribery of Representative George B. Nye. Detective Harrison names four State Senators with whom he had dealings and to whom he declared he paid money.

Today's news items today, when an investigating committee will be appointed.

ARE BOUND OVER.
Bailey and Harrison were bound to the grand jury in bonds of $5000 each, and Berry was bound to the grand jury on the charge of bribery in bonds of $2500. Their bonds were signed by a surety company.

Two have stenographic copies of every word that passed between Representative Nye and the other men involved," said Detective Harrison today. "The evidence was secured by means of a dictaphone which consisted of a number of small discs arranged in a circle, the sound of which was carried by means of wires connected with an electric battery.

Twenty of the Legislature are involved in the scandal. If I had been here a week longer I would have run out of money, they were so eager for it. It will take us a week to tell all we have found out."

The above endorsements were made unanimously and the veterans are taking all necessary steps to make a vigorous fight for their candidates, especially for P. C. Frederickson, candidate for Commissioner No. 4, as it was the unanimous expression of the board or trustees that the annexed district should have a representative on the Board of Commissioners.

Damage Estimated at $250,000 Is Done to Big Factory

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Damage estimated at about $250,000 was done by a stubborn fire which broke out in the factory of the Illinois-Pacific Glass Works, Fifteenth and Polson streets, shortly after 2 o'clock this morning, and which was not extinguished until 5 hours later.

Alarm after alarm was turned in as the firemen found themselves battling against a raging furnace in one of the main buildings of the plant. There were only two alleyways through which hose could be dragged, and it was a difficult task to effectively reach the flames which spread in every direction.

The intricate and delicate glass blowing machines were destroyed, and almost everything in the main glass factory was ruined. Whether the blaze was caused by crossed wires or by overheated apparatus has not yet been determined, but it had gained considerable headway when discovered by one of the engineers, who rang in an alarm from box 555.

MEN ARE HANDICAPPED.
Chief Murphy and his men found themselves handicapped in their fight, but managed to restrain the fire within the building where it first originated. Other parts of the plant were damaged by water, the furnace room being a miniature lake and until it was pumped out it was impossible for the engineers to begin work this morning.

The officials of the company were unable to form any correct estimate of the damage, but stated that their loss was fully covered by insurance.

Had the fire occurred on any other night but Sunday it would have been discovered at the start by employees who work day and night in the factory. Sunday night alone the buildings are dark. There were 600 men employed in the building, the destroyed John J. Sheehan, the furnace-man, who turned in the alarm, declared that the flames had already reached the roof when he discovered them.

Investigation showed that the fire was caused by a leak in a large vat.

VILMOS WESTONY IS STAR AT BELL THEATER THIS WEEK

VILMOS WESTONY, noted pianist, at the Bell Theater.

Westony's piano playing and the sweet, mellow notes of "The Grand Old Man," Col. Sam Holdsworth, the oldest professional tenor in the world, are two big features of the splendid new bill at the Bell Theater this week. Vilmos Westony was the protégé and pupil of the immortal Richard Wagner and is today the only Wagnerian pianist. He has the power in his remarkable ability on the piano to charm an audience of the most ardent devotees of music with a program of the heaviest works of the world's greatest composers, yet in his delightful, delicate performance, he strikes a different vein and produces a repertoire charmingly fitted to the requirements and disposition of the people before him. He does not go over the heads of his hearers, for his harmonies are within the reach of all and the quaint vein of comedy he introduces enhances the pleasurable qualities of his act to a marked degree.

It is a rare sight to see a man of the years of Col. Sam Holdsworth hold an audience as he does with his songs. With hair as white as snow, and steps not any too firm, his voice cannot help but appeal to you in its sweet and tender quality. He sings two songs, both demanding an exceedingly high range, yet he essays them with the greatest ease. There is never a breath nor a falter, and the notes ring clear and true as from the throat of a young song bird.

"The Walking Delegate" is a sketch that is a combination of melodrama and comedy, presented by Harry Booker & Co., that furnishes the real comedy of the bill. Booker is rated high in character work and in the role of Mike

Sweeney, the had carrier in the skit, he is the typical Irish workman in every minute detail. Jas. P. Duffy appears as the "delegate" and the combination is a rattling good one and the theme is very appropriate.

"WINNING A QUEEN."

Frank Gardiner and Hattie Vincent are roundly applauded in their farcical fantasy, "Winning a Queen," a sketch filled with humorous situations and an unique ending. Gardiner is shot through a twelve-inch gun into the sky, where he does some fantastic traveling, even calling on the lady in the moon. The Queen falls in love with the man from the earth and he brings her home on a honeymoon trip.

"Wonderful muscular development and feats of strength that cause you to marvel, show while the Hall Brothers occupy the spot light. Nelson, the heavier of the two, a variable present day Hercules, has everything in the way of muscles that Sandow had, and perhaps more. That particular fellow ever discovered. His brother Alfred, who weighs 151 pounds is tossed and lifted about like a rubber ball and the act closes with a beautiful pose which serves to show the marvelous muscular development of the two.

Haskell & Renaud get away from the usual stereotyped act in their novelty singing and dancing offering and there is plenty of fun and merriment and fancy steps in the act contributed by Stone & Hayes. The "rube" song by the former is a side-splitter and he is nothing if not original.

BANK PROMOTERS GIVEN HARD BLOW

Professional Financial Boosters Must Cease Their Operations Says Murray.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Professional bank promoters, under an order issued today by Comptroller Murray, hereafter will have no part in the organization of national banks. Applications to organized banks made after today must embody a declaration that no money will be paid for any soliciting of subscriptions to the stock for a fee of $5 to $10 in organizing the bank.

It has been the practice of professional promoters to visit different localities and by advertising and public meetings work up enthusiasm for the organization of new national banks. In some cases where the business which would come to the banks is insufficient to warrant success.

In some cases, which have come to the knowledge of the comptroller, it has been shown that the promoter is satisfied to organize the bank for a fee of $5 to $10 on each share of the stock. In other cases he has an understanding that he is to be elected to office, receive a salary and be given the privilege of having a company in which he is interested loan the funds of the bank on a commission basis.

Comptroller Murray believes banks should be organized in communities where there is need for them and where the business men of the community are willing to put their money into the bank and to manage it safely and wisely. He believes that in every case where a bank promoter must be called in to act as a promoter in selling stock at a large commission it is a positive indication of no need for additional banking facilities, and such a situation will not be longer tolerated.

KANSAS IN GRIP OF FROST AND WIND

TOPEKA, Kas., May 1.—Kansas is shivering today. A heavy cold wave north wind is blowing, and overcasts have once more been put into service. The mercury dropped to 36 degrees, but the sky was overcast and there was no frost. The range of the mercury during 48 hours was 58 degrees. It is now stationary at 38 degrees and a severe freeze is expected tonight.

WILL READ INSCRIPTION ON OWN MONUMENT

ANSONIA, Conn., May 1.—Thomas Mulcahy left here fourteen years ago for the Klondike and later was reported killed in a snowslide. A monument to his memory was erected in a local cemetery by a brother. Last night Mulcahy walked into the home of relatives here. He had been caught in a snowslide, he said, but escaped with injuries which laid him up for a long time.

TAFT DEFINES LAW IN TELLING STORY

At Law Society Banquet He Recites Opinion of a Supreme Justice.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—President Taft, the chief justice of the United States, and the chief justice of Canada, together with many other prominent international figures, addressed the American Society of International Law at its annual banquet here. The president caused a good deal of laughter by telling the members of the society how Senator Elihu Root, the president of the society, had lectured both Theodore Roosevelt and himself about the conduct of affairs in the White House.

"Speaking of law as a lawyer, Mr. Taft said: 'I talked once with a justice of the United States Supreme Court. He said to me, 'Taft, what is law?' I thought that was a peculiar question coming from a justice of a court that was supposed to know that definition perfectly, and I said: 'O Justice, I would rather hear you define it.'"

"Well," he said, "What is it but a lot of rules of conduct bound on principles, of supposed general policies that were laid down some hundreds of years ago by men who did not know anything more about it than you and I do."

PROMOTED AFTER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS' SERVICE.

SAN JOSE, May 1.—H. H. Tripp, for a quarter of a century a carrier and clerk in the local postoffice, was promoted to a superintendent this morning. He is to take charge of a branch postoffice to be opened in West San Jose.

HOME TREATMENT FOR TUBERCULOSIS

Many people have cured themselves of Tuberculosis by using Eckman's Alternative. This is not a new medicine. It has saved after other methods failed. Investigate our affirmative and your improvement should be certain. From one who knows: TOPEKA, Kas., May 1.—Colwyn (Darby), Pa. Gentlemen: "For four years I was troubled with cough. A physician pronounced my case Consumption, and I was ordered to a Consumptive Hospital. My nephew would not allow me to go until I had tried Eckman's Alternative, which I did. I am in excellent health now, and have been ten years. I strongly recommend it." (Signed) (MRS.) MARY WASSON. Fuller details of above case on request. Eckman's Alternative is for Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Affections. For sale by the Owl Drug Stores and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet of cured cases, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

SPIRITS TO TREAD STANFORD CAMPUS

Australian Millionaire Gives $50,000 for Chair in Psychic Phenomena.

PALO ALTO, May 1.—The announcement made yesterday of a gift of $100,000 to Stanford University by Thomas Walton Stanford, brother of the late Senator Stanford, was followed by the disclosure that half of the amount was to be used in investigating psychic phenomena.

Stanford, who has been interested for years in spiritualism and the patron of mediums at his home in Melbourne, Australia, has virtually assured the trustees of the university that he is ready to found a chair for the study of the occult.

So far no definite decision has been reached by the trustees of Stanford for the scope of the investigation, but it is understood that the occult chair at the university will be a unique innovation in the field of university endeavor.

Stanford has already presented the museum at the university with coins, tablets, ancient manuscripts and other antiques that he believes were materialized by mediums at seances held at his Melbourne home.

These reports, as they are called by the mediums, were declared by Stanford as matter that had been passed through matter, and he refused to allow his Majesty's customs officials at Melbourne to charge him duty on them.

A live turtle was included among the apparitions materialized at the seances and its production excited a great deal of attention in spiritualistic circles. Charles Ealey, a former employee at the shoe factory, was among the mediums who was said to effect these bewildering materializations at the Stanford home.

Animals materialized. Live birds from the Malay Peninsula and from India, African fetiches, dolls from the Congo made of human bones, skulls, state dress of cannibal kings and costumes of Chinese mandarins were some of the other articles said to have been evoked with the aid of the inhabitants of the spirit land.

Beside paying the expenses of the seances and the salaries of the mediums, Stanford had defrayed the expense of a spiritualistic publication and has brought out books written on spiritualism by his friends.

He has been among the most interested investigators of spiritualism and psychic phenomena among wealthy men, in fact, since his long residence in Australia.

COMPLETE ART MUSEUM.

Of the $100,000 just given to the university, $50,000 is to be used in completing wings to the university for housing the $250,000 collection of paintings given to it by Stanford. These paintings were presented to the university about six years ago and have been stored in San Francisco. They consist principally of Australian landscapes.

CONTRA COSTA'S NEW HOSPITAL IS OPENED

MARTINEZ, May 1.—With Dr. Edwin Merthwe, county physician, in charge of the ceremonies, Contra Costa county's new hospital, which was built at a cost of $37,000, was formally dedicated and opened to the public yesterday. Hundreds of visitors from all parts of the county were on hand and were shown through the building. The members of the Contra Costa County Medical Association held their monthly meeting at the new infirmary, and were entertained at a luncheon, which was served early in the afternoon. The meeting of the association was conducted in the quarters to be occupied by Dr. Merthwe and W. E. Hough, superintendent of the building and grounds.

LOS ANGELES GETS MEET OF MUNICIPAL LEAGUE

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—Richmond, Va., in 1911, and Los Angeles in 1912, are the two places chosen for the yearly meeting of the National Municipal League. Announcement of the action of the executive committee was made by Clinton Rogers Woodruff, the treasurer.

MISS LUCILE SHEAR AND CAPTAIN P. L. BUSH WED

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Miss Lucile Shear, daughter of Mrs. Ida Shear and the late David Shear, and Captain Philip L. Bush, N. G. C., son of the late Brigadier General H. K. Bush of the National Guard, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's mother, 204 Broadway. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, the ceremony, performed by Rabbi Meyer, was witnessed by only a few relatives and intimate friends.

JURY HEARS BOYS.

SANTA ROSA, May 1.—Albert and Louis Bauer, the two boys who "for fun" rolled down a boulder from a hill at Peach Flats, the missile striking and slaying the skull of little Kessler Furgerson, resulting in his death, told their story to the coroner's jury this morning. There is no question but that the affair was a boyish prank and done without the knowledge that any harm would result.

CHINESE FUNERALS ARE NIX WITH CYRUS NOW

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Cyrus Bollenbaugh, who lives in the Eva hotel, Oakland, doesn't want to see any more Chinese funerals, especially when they entail the loss of $50. Bollenbaugh accepted the offer of an obliging stranger Saturday night to witness one of those weird Oriental events in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. But, whether the funeral was postponed or the celestial hadn't died yet, is not known, for Bollenbaugh didn't see any funeral, and he left the cemetery minus $50, out of which the kind-hearted stranger and two companions had fleeced him in a matching game.

HAVANA DRIVERS STRIKE; WHOLESALERS AFFECTED

HAVANA, May 1.—More than 1000 cartmen struck today tying up the wholesale business in the city. The grievance is the alleged vexatious traffic regulations adopted by the city authorities and harshly enforced by the police.

RYAN TO SURRENDER.

DENVER, May 1.—Francis Ryan, alias Edward Stevens, wanted in Los Angeles for alleged land swindling operations involving between $50,000 and $75,000, and who escaped from the Denver jail several weeks ago, is on his way to the California city to give himself up, according to a letter received by Chief of Police Armstrong.

BEAUTY LOTIONS ALL BEAT BY OSGOODS' DYSPEPSIA REMEDY

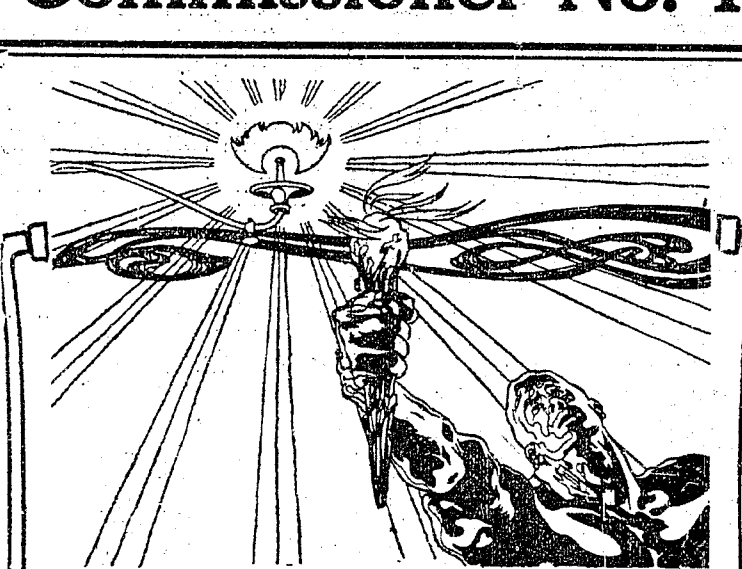

The Skin is the Best Mirror of the Condition of the Body and a Poor Complexion the Best Indication of Indigestion and Other Stomach Diseases.

Beauty and good health are synonymous terms, and though one may boast of features of Grecian regularity and good complexion is the most valuable asset toward good looks that a person can possess. But no one can expect to have a smooth, fair skin whose stomach is out of order or in a more or less diseased condition. It is a well known fact that the condition of the skin is an index to the general health and condition of the vital organs; and that pimples, spots and blotches upon the face and neck but reflect the diseased condition of the stomach and digestive organs of the person so afflicted. So a wise person who wants to look as well as nature has intended. Instead of smearing, harmful "bleaches and washes" upon their skin, will go farther and remove the cause of the disfigurements by taking the best medicine obtainable for stomach trouble. Osgoods' Dyspepsia Cure has never been featured as a complexion beautifier but as a remedy for sallow and muddy skin, and eruptions caused from a disordered stomach it has the majority of beauty lotions beat to a finish, and its popularity is the natural result of the benefits derived from taking it. Good health and the good looks which go with a robust physical condition are within the reach of everyone who is suffering from lack of either because of stomach trouble, and who is willing to pay the price. One dollar a bottle, money back if not satisfied. Osgoods' Dyspepsia remedy is on sale at both the Osgood Drug Stores, the one at Seventh and Broadway and that one at Twelfth and Washington.

CANDIDATE FOR Commissioner No. 1

When gas was first successfully utilized for illumination in 1806 it was hailed as a great invention, and so it was. Today gas not only lights your home, but it solves your heating problems as well.

Large and modern plants like the Oakland Gas, Light and Heat Company have not only perfected illuminating gas, but have brought it within the means of every one, even for cooking and heating. The family who does not utilize this economical fuel is losing money.

You will never reap the full benefit of this wonderful invention unless you heat and cook with gas.
